Praise for response to TSA's proposals

TRUST Special Administrators have thanked all who took part in the public consultation period on its draft hospital recommendations – and now have 15 working days to finalise their report.

The consultation period came to an end at midnight on Tuesday, October 1. The TSAs' final report will take into account the responses received.

It will set out final recommendations and is due to be delivered to watchdog Monitor on October 21, who will then publish the report and pass it to the Secretary of State for Health for a final decision on the hospitals' future.

Feeling

Alan Bloom, one of the TSAs, has paid tribute to the number of people that took part. He said: "The TSAs have been impressed by the strength of feeling and passion local people have for Stafford and Cannock Chase hospitals.

"They have attended our public meetings, questioned our draft recommendations in detail and challenged us on our assumptions.

"Our job now is to consider their responses in our drafting of our final recommendations and our final report. I thank everyone who has taken part."

Teenager honoured

A CANCER-suffering teenager who has set his sights on fundraising has been presented with the inaugural award named in his honour.

Stephen Sutton, of Burntwood, was shocked to receive the Stephen Sutton Award for Inspiring Others.

It will be awarded annually by Chase Terrace Technology College, where the 18-year-old studied for his A-Levels.

Stephen has set a fundraising target of £150,000 for the Teenage Cancer Trust.

Mother hails 'fantastic' care given to twins

Jennifer Leathwood and Stuart Pope, of Wimblebury, twins Zachary and Riley and elder son Jacob, aged seven

A MOTHER from Cannock whose twins who were born at Stafford Hospital has hailed the outstanding care she received, as she warned against plans to close its maternity unit.

Jennifer Leathwood delivered Zachary and Riley at Stafford in August and has praised staff for their 'fantastic' care.

Zachary needed to be put on an incubator after weighing just 3lbs 14oz and spent around a month in the special care baby unit at the Weston Road site. Riley, who weighed just over 5lbs, was initially tube fed after his arrival.

Part-time paramedic Jennifer, who lives with her partner Stuart Pope in Foxtail Way, Wimblebury, said they had been grateful for the efforts of staff.

Public consultation on the proposals to cut services from the hospital closed at midnight on Tuesday, and the 37-year-old said: "We were really impressed, I don't think we could have had better care.

Shame

"It is such a shame it is going to go, it will leave a big hole.

"From what we have experienced I think it is such a shame they are thinking of shutting maternity.

"All the staff were fantastic, you just can't fault them."

Jennifer has another boy Jacob aged seven and her partner Stuart, a distribution manager, has a 10-year-old son Callum. Their twins were born on August 28.

Stafford MP Jeremy Lefroy is opposing plans to close the maternity unit, withdraw paediatric inpatient care and downgrade critical care.

The cuts at Stafford would mean the dissolution of Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, with other trusts including Wolverhampton taking on the running of those sites.

Villagers could buy space set for homes

VILLAGERS battling to save a piece of green belt land from development say they are prepared to buy the site themselves.

KGL Estates want to build 141 homes on the land off Landywood Lane between Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley. Protesters have set up a Save our Space campaign group and say buying the land would prevent plans to build there.

Glenis Priest, whose home borders the land, says residents of both villages had discussed raising the cash between them if the price is right.

Gift

Mrs Priest, who moved to Landywood Lane with husband Clive less than three months ago, called on Ken Lees, of KGL Estates to sell or gift the land to villagers.

The 77-year-old businessman, who grew up in Great Wyrley, said he was open to discussion but had so far received no communication from the campaigners.

If planning permission is refused, they said they would look to buy the land with a view of turning it into a village green for community use.

Mr Lees warned that could prove more complicated than residents think.

Applause for legend

A MINUTE'S applause will be held at Wolves' next home game to honour club legend Peter Broadbent.

Respects will be paid before next Tuesday's Johnstone's Paint Trophy clash against Notts County.

The following day his funeral will be held at St Peter's Collegiate Church, St Peter's Square, Wolverhampton at 1.45pm. Relatives have requested family flowers only. Donations are welcome to the Alzheimer's Society.

MATERNITY UNIT'S CLOSURE OPPOSED

STAFFORDSHIRE MPs have stepped up their opposition to the closure of Stafford Hospital's maternity unit.

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley and his Stafford Conservative colleague Jeremy Lefroy responded as consultation ended over draft proposals for both Cannock and Stafford hospitals.

by Kirsten Rawlins

Final plans are being submitted by Trust Special Administrators. Once a final report has been compiled, the Secretary of State must make a decision by December 31.

Changes

TSA proposals will lead to the under-used Cannock Hospital in Brunswick Road receiving an extra influx of patients from Wolverhampton. Bosses at New Cross would take over running the site under proposals.

In response, Mr Burley said he fully supported the plans for Cannock but 'strongly opposed' maternity changes at Stafford.

"We now have a once in a generation opportunity to bring Cannock Hospital to life again, by removing the ghost of MSFT, and being run by a Trust which actually wants to use and improve the facility," he said.

"Whilst there may be a 'direction of travel' towards having larger, 24-7 consultant led obstetrics units, I do not believe the case has been made that that in itself is a reason for moving all maternity care from Stafford, especially when it is acknowledged that the maternity unit is operating safely at present."

Mr Lefroy meanwhile has submitted his own plans to the TSAs for inclusion in the public consultation, which closed at midnight on Tuesday. The administrators say these will be considered before their final report is submitted.

He supports the dissolution of the Mid Staffordshire NHS Trust and has also backed a TSA plan to increase services provided at Cannock.

Pub's mixed fruit Christmas pudding

Landlord Oliver Westwood, the proprietor's son, with ingredients needed to create a giant Christmas pudding using a cement mixer at The Vine pub, Rugeley

A RUGELEY pub boss is cooking a giant 10lbs Christmas pudding – using a cement mixer – to raise funds for charity.

Dave Westwood, proprietor of The Vine, in Sheepfair, reckons it will be big enough to feed 100 people.

The pudding will be sold to customers to raise much-needed funds for St Giles Hospice.

"Having talked to our customers we're going to be using grapes from the front of our pub to create our raisins after a bumper fruit crop," said Mr Westwood.

"Once these have been dried we will base our measures on this. We're hoping to get eight to 10lbs, enough for 100 people.

"Customers have offered their own homegrown produce too –including apples, lemons, blackberry, eggs and locally brewed stout.

The mixing event takes place on November 17 and the finished product will be sold on to customers from December 1.

Shake-up to leave £8.5m black hole

THE COUNTY council has warned a shake-up of healthcare could leave Stafford Hospital at risk and have a serious impact on services.

The authority said there would be an £8.5m black hole which would leave the hospital at 'considerable risk'. The council has submitted its formal response to the consultation on recommendations to dissolve Mid Staffordshire Foundation Trust.

County Council leader Philip Atkins said: "We have looked at the proposals in great detail and, as they currently stand, we believe these recommendations will lead to an unacceptable fragmentation of the local health care system.

"The administrators have focused purely on trying to resolve the issues at the trust rather than look at the wider picture and indeed the wider repercussions of these recommendations. Not only are we very concerned that this financial black hole is still going to leave Stafford Hospital at significant risk of both financial and clinical collapse, but the review also fails to recognise the knock-on impact across the county."

Meanwhile, moves to dissolve Mid Staffordshire NHS Trust have been backed by the Stafford and Surrounds and Cannock Chase Clinical Groups. But in consultation letters, the groups say the administrators have not produced a solution that delivers clinical and financial sustainability for the Mid Staffordshire Health economy.

Andrew Donald, chief accountable officer, said: "Neither CCG can sign up to the TSA report because it doesn't propose a financially sustainable solution and we will not accept a solution that leaves either CCG with a multi million pound debt to manage."

Thousands march to save hospital services

THOUSANDS of protesters took to the streets of Stafford for a march against plans to downgrade services at the town's hospital.

The March for Children was arranged in opposition to cuts to maternity, paediatrics and critical care. It attracted crowds of 20,000, a turnout hailed as 'fantastic' by organisers

The cuts have been proposed by trust special administrators appointed to decide the future of both Stafford and Cannock hospitals.

Children of all ages joined their parents for the second hospital march, just days before the consultation into the plans to strip services ends.

Campaigners carried placards and banners pleading to the Government to allow the hospital to keep all services.

Under the TSA proposals, Stafford Hospital faces losing its maternity unit and paediatric inpatient care department while critical care would also be downgraded.

The Support Stafford Hospital group targeted Saturday's march to highlight the importance of retaining maternity and paediatrics.

Proud

Dignitaries in attendance included The Bishop of Stafford, the Rt Rev Geoff Annas, Stafford MP Jeremy Lefroy and borough council leader Mike Heenan.

They joined the one-mile trek up to the hospital in Weston Road and spoke to the thousands who had gathered in fields surrounding the site.

Rev Annas told the crowds: "You have yet again done Stafford proud. The whole community has come together.We have got to go that final bit.

"We are saying that this is a county town with lots of people living here.

"It needs its maternity services. It needs its paediatric services. It needs its critical care as well."

Mr Lefroy urged people to keep battling hard to ensure the hospital retains all its services.

He said: "This is not just about Stafford. The reason we are here today is because it's vital that maternity, paediatrics and critical care continues here in Stafford. Not just for Stafford, but for the people of Cannock, Rugeley, and Penkridge.

"By keeping these services here we are taking the pressure off other hospitals that are cracking at the seams. "

Olympian takes reins to pass on knowledge

Ruth Hytch, Chloe Palmer, Sally Johnson, Jeanette Brakewell and Clive Keble at the launch event

AN Olympic medallist took the reins to pass on her 'Horse Sense' to animal owners.

Jeanette Brakewell launched a leaflet, Horse Sense in the AONB, to advise those who keep horses on or near the Cannock Chase Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The Cannock Chase AONB Partnership, supported by South Staffordshire College, held an information event in September, inviting anyone that keeps horses in the area to find out how to make sure their animals are happy and healthy, while at the same time protecting the local environment. The free evening event, held at the Equestrian Centre in Rodbaston College, attracted 20 people who were eager to find out about best practice horse pasture management.

Eventing star Brakewell, winner of two Olympic team silver medals, introduced the evening and launched the leaflet. She said: "It was good to see awareness of the issues surrounding keeping horses on or near Cannock Chase AONB raised during the presentations and to launch the new leaflet."

Also in attendance was Chloe Palmer from Farm & Environment Consultancy Ltd and Clive Keble, from Clive Keble Consulting Ltd and planning adviser for Cannock Chase AONB Partnership.

Ruth Hytch, Assistant AONB Officer, said: "We're pleased the event went well and it was an honour to meet Jeanette Brakewell."

The next leaflet will focus on riding routes throughout the AONB and will offer practical guidance to anyone that rides on the Chase. For more information, call Emma Beaman on 01785 619186.

100 homes planned for waste site near M6 Toll

THE building of 100 homes and a pub on land in Cannock near to the M6 Toll have been proposed under a new scheme.

An area off Lakeside Boulevard in Bridgtown would see the 10-acre vacant site converted into housing, similar to that being built on an adjacent site north of the Boulevard by Bellway.

by Kirsten Rawlins

The site forms part of what was formerly home to Magnetti Marelli, an Italian vehicle lighting firm.

Property advisory firm GVA said the development would 'form a natural extension' to the Lakeside housing development which is nearing completion. It is also close to Vine Court, a care home for over 55s.

Derelict

"The site is adjoined along the entirety of its northern boundary by existing residential development," the firm said in its design and access statement to Cannock Chase Council.

"The development of the site to the south of Lakeside Boulevard forms a natural extension to this and would remove the potential for conflict between existing residents and any proposed new industrial or commercial development.

"Development also removes what is currently an unattractive derelict site."

Housing would be largely of two and three bedroom terraced homes, alongside semi-detached and detached homes.

Along the Walkmill Lane front of the site, a 'solid block of development' is planned, which will be either flats or terraced homes. A pub would be built in a prominent position next to the A5.

Land to the south of the pub would be left as open space for recreational use.

The possibility of linking footpaths directly to the pedestrian bridge across the M6 Toll road is also being explored according to GVA, which would provide access to recreational areas to the south of the motorway.

Maureen Freeman, a parish councillor for Bridgtown, said while she could not prejudge anything before it is put before the main council, she welcomed the plans as they stand.

"I know people at Vine Court with mobility problems are really struggling to cross the A5," she said. "They're trying to cross Watling Street on their mobility scooters – it's awful."

"People already living at the housing estate and the care home struggle to get across the A5 to the shops, so if the plans were to include a pub – and possibly some form of convenience store.

"I'm sure people would welcome it."

Annual service is held for carers

AN annual service for carers in the community takes place in Rugeley this month. Organisations and individual carers are invited to the St Lukestide service at St Augustine's Church, Station Road, on Thursday, October 17. It takes place from 7.30pm.

Gamers get kick out of Fifa queue

Asa Pedley, aged 18, from Cannock, passes the time with kick-ups while queuing for the launch of Fifa 14

FANS queued in the early hours outside a Cannock store to get their hands on a new computer game.

Just over a week after the late night launch of Grand Theft Auto V, fans were back at the shops to get hold of a copy of Fifa 14.

At the Game store in Cannock Shopping Centre, some fans had been queuing for almost two hours before being let into the store.

First in the queue were friends Matt Till, 17, and Asa Pedley, 17, both from Chadsmoor, who had brought a football along with them to pass time while waiting for the store to open.

Asa said: "I always queue up for games, it is just something I like to do because then I know I have them and can play them when I want to rather than waiting until they are back in stock."

He added the queue for Fifa was not as big as Grand theft Auton, but was still 'reasonable'.

Around 40 people turned up to purchase the game at midnight and deputy manager James Maskrey said the atmosphere was fantastic.

He added: "When a new game is released we always have a queue of people who can't wait to get their hands on it."

WHILE Labour and Tory politicians heap scorn upon Ukip, remember this: Ukip is their child. The Labour and Conservative governments created the policies on the EU and immigration which gave birth to Ukip. They sustained those policies with lies and deception which nurtured the growing infant. Today, Ukip is a stroppy adolescent with an awful lot of bad friends and its parents know that, before long, it will punch them very hard. That is why Fleet Street's finest, who support a two-party system, set out to scupper Ukip's conference. But I suspect most voters recognise an ambush when they see one, and may even sympathise with the embattled Nigel Farage. The EU Parliament elections are next year and, barring a disaster, I expect Mr Farage's party to give the Tories such a whacking that Call-me-Dave will feel a sudden urge to dump his adopted child Nick and embrace his true son Nigel.

ED Balls, hoping to be the next Chancellor, says he would scrap HS2 if the costs rose. So is this the end of the line? Don't bank on it. There is a theory that Balls is merely "surfing the wave" of public opposition to HS2. Some readers may recall that in the 1990s John Prescott told protesters that a Labour government would not build the controversial M6 Toll, then known as BNRR, the Birmingham Northern Relief Road. Labour got elected. The road was built.

THE Daily Mail's latest columnist, introduced with a huge fanfare ("wickedly mischievous!") a few weeks ago, is one Sarah Vine. In this week's offering she complains that her husband has "almost as many pictures of the late Margaret Thatcher in his office as there are of me and the children." Hubby sounds a bit weird, unless you happen to know that in private life Sarah Vine is Mrs Michael Gove, wife of the Secretary of State for Education.

BLIMEY, you don't want to fall out with Stephen Fry, do you? A Daily Telegraph columnist spotted Fry chatting with an actor this week, at the same time as Fry was sending Twitter messages. The writer dared to suggest that Fry did not write his own Tweets. The truth is that "scheduled Tweeting" can send your messages at any time. Infuriated by the column, Fry responded with a raging, frothing, incandescent 1,000-word tirade which must rate as one of the greatest rants of all time. He peppers his online attack with the vilest insults against the hack ("this creep from the inner ring of Satan's rectum"), the Telegraph and the printed media in general. Do have a look at it. It is magnificently venomous and I guarantee you'll never think of Stephen Fry, formerly Jeeves the valet and now the camply erudite presenter of the quiz show QI, in quite the same way again. Don't tell him I said so. It's at http://stephen-fry-me.tumblr.com/post/61754597917/some-weasel-of-a-telegraph-journo-wants-me-to-give-up.

TEMPTED by a £25 M&S voucher, I took part in a phone survey on household insurance. I may not be getting the voucher because I didn't really answer the last question. No-one knows how good an insurer is until something goes wrong.

Over the last 12 months, Sainsbury's has provided cholesterol testing and training, organised a mental health information day and a departmental pedometer challenge.

Cannock Chase Council's health and wellbeing leader Councillor Muriel Davis said: "I am pleased to celebrate Sainsbury's success with them."

The 24-year-old, who landed two golds at the Beijing Olympics in 2008 and followed it up with two bronze medals at London 2012, officially unveiled the £6 million Chase Leisure Centre in Stafford Road.

She was joined local GB squad member Emma Wilkins, aged 22.

The venue, now run by Wigan Leisure and Culture Trust, opened in March after a two-year shutdown and eight months of delays following a revamp.

After her opening speech Miss Adlington gave two lessons to around 90 children from the town and its two swimming clubs, Cannock Phoenix and Chase. She then held a meet and greet session.

Miss Adlington, who shares the record as Britain's most decorated female Olympian with Katherine Grainger, said it was vital to the future of British swimming to have centres such as Chase, to encourage potential champions.

She said: "It's important when you are spending so much time in a place that it has a great atmosphere, great facilities, that it is well lit and it's clean.

Recession

"Especially for the guys that are part of a club – here they have proper lanes, proper lane ropes, and all the equipment they need to do the things they need to do.

"This centre is modern and you want to spend time here.

"It's inviting and it's just a nice environment, and a lot of pools are not getting refurbished now because of the recession."

In her opening speech last Saturday, Councillor Christine Mitchell, portfolio holder for culture and sport at Cannock Chase District Council, said the centre was the culmination of years of hard work.

She said: "At Cannock Chase Council we have been determined to invest in our culture and leisure facilities and the official opening of this facility truly demonstrates this commitment."

The main pool is regulation length and will be able to hold competitions.

The small pool is filled with warmer water aimed at parents and young children.

And the third pool has a moving floor area and will be used for a variety of activities including aqua aerobics, sub aqua and swimming lessons.

No loss of service on HS2 says minister

TRANSPORT Secretary Patrick McLoughlin says HS2 will not lead to the loss of long distance services from stations in Staffordshire and the Black Country.

The minister has insisted that the £42.6 billion HS2 project will not mean existing services are taken away.

His comments contradict the suggestion of Network Rail to downgrade Wolverhampton and Stafford rail stations to 'spokes' serving 'hubs' in Crewe and Birmingham.

Change

The business case for HS2 also proposes transferring long distance services to HS2, meaning passengers travelling to London from Wolverhampton and Sandwell and Dudley would have to change at Birmingham.

But speaking from the Tory party conference, Mr McLoughlin, a former Cannock Chase councillor said: "I don't think there will be any loss of service. We are not building extra capacity to take away existing services.

"It's a massive boost for the West Midlands, not just Birmingham, but for people in places like Walsall and Cannock."

Fire chief in new top job

STAFFORDSHIRE'S top fire chief is stepping on to the national stage to take up a prestigious role.

Chief fire officer Peter Dartford has been appointed vice-president of the Chief Fire Officers Association. He will support Paul Fuller in his role as president during 2013-14 before taking on the role himself next year.

Mr Dartford, who became chief fire officer/chief executive in 2008, said: "I am very much looking forward to playing an increasingly influential role in the future of the UK Fire and Rescue Service."

Trial date is set

A TRIAL date has been set for a Great Wyrley man accused of targeting a 90-year-old woman in a distraction burglary in Pelsall. Damion Price, 27, of Long Lane, is accused of claiming to have done gardening work on December 10 and receiving £30. He was bailed to appear at Wolverhampton crown court on January 13.

Staff rise to challenge with charity climb

STAFF from the Cannock head office of a national company joined colleagues to raise more than £6,000 for Marie Curie Cancer Care by completing the National Three Peaks Challenge with the extra difficulty of pushing their minibus more than a mile when it broken down.

The from motorway service area operators Roadchef included CEO Simon Turl. He has also completed a 405-mile motorcycle ride across the country in aid of Marie Curie, Roadchef's charity of the year.

The challenge saw the team climb three of the tallest mountains in the UK - Ben Nevis in Scotland, Scafell Pike in the Lake District and finally Snowdon in Wales - in just 23 hours and 35 minutes.

The gruelling hike was full of challenges including clambering on hands and knees up the steep slopes of Scafell Pike in the middle of the night and pushing the team minibus for 1.4 miles to the nearest petrol station, after it broke down en route to Snowdon in Betws-Y-Coed.

Others taking part were Mike Heaton, director of commercial & loss prevention, Ross Hunt, IT technical support analyst, Mike Jackson, head of purchasing, Steve McAdam, Matt Winfield, McDonald's ops development manager, Sam and James Turl, Peter Watkins, head of franchised catering brands, Paul Matthews, area director, and his daughter, Mike Langham, site director, Suzy Morrice, marketing segment development manager, and Paula Smith, admin assistant.

The drivers were Julian Unsworth, regional controller, and Keith Palin, site director. Mr Turl said: "Last year a team from Roadchef conquered the Yorkshire Three Peaks, which was a challenge in itself, but this year we wanted to take things up a level, which we certainly did!

"It was no easy feat, with lack of sleep and hunger really testing the team, but we did it in the end. We're thrilled to have raised such a fantastic amount for Marie Curie and would like to thank everybody that came forward as sponsors".

Jo Hancock, from Marie Curie, said: " Congratulations to everyone for completing such an impressive feat."

Roadchef has pledged to raise £125,000 for Marie Curie. Other fundraisers have included a cycle relay challenge, and a corporate charity golf day, which raised £22,00.

Archaeological dig of the Chase war town extended

THE painstaking excavation of a mock-up of a Belgian town which helped Allied troops win an important First World War battle has been extended.

The archaeological dig on Cannock Chase has uncovered so much unexpected detail that organisers have asked for more time to work on unearthing the model – the size of five tennis courts.

The dig site at Brocton, where a former wartime training camp stood, got under way two weeks ago.

"There are features there that none of us expected to see, so we've had to keep going back to the map – it's been like untangling a plate of spaghetti," said Lee Dent, who discovered the model with friend Richard Pursehouse after years of research.

Built by German prisoners of war under supervision from New Zealand troops, the model was intended as both a training aid for soldiers heading to Passchendaele and as a tribute to fallen colleagues.

Trenches

An army of experts and volunteers has been working on unearthing the model village, constructed mostly of concrete. They have found inches-high copies of homes, churches and trenches depicted in the Messines model.

Mr Dent, a 47-year-old lorry driver from Cannock, said tons of topsoil has had to be removed by hand in order to reach parts of the model.

There are also more trenches than they anticipated and the remains of a caretaker's hut have also been discovered at the site.

He said: "We knew there had been a hut at the site, but again we found more than we bargained for. There was a stove, some crockery, a 1922 sixpence – all sorts of things." Findings so far also suggest that the model has a drainage system.

The excavation, which was due to finish at the end of September, will be extended by at least two days.

A New Zealand military advisor who is helping coordinate the country's Great War centenary commemorations, visited the site last week to meet the team t.

Lt Col Mike Beale said: "It is incredible to see the scale, perspective and detail of the Messines model and this is a fantastic example of how the Great War can be commemorated."

Bus service is launched for Amazon employees

TWO new bus services are being launched to ferry hundreds of seasonal workers to and from the Amazon distribution base in Rugeley.

The company announced last week it was taking on 1,500 workers at the site in the build-up to Christmas.

Workers can be ferried on the A2 and the A3 services. However the buses have been contracted to run for four months and are unlikely to continue past January.

Arriva Midlands has set up the routes at the request of three recruitment agencies which are providing workers for Amazon.

Service A2 will run from Wolverhampton's Pipers Row to Willenhall, The Dale, New Invention, Essington Road, Cannock, opposite McDonalds on Church Street, Hednesford, Uxbridge Arms/Woody's then to Amazon on the Towers Business Park.

Service A3 will follow a route from Wednesbury, via the lay-by outside the bus station, Walsall, Hatherton Road, opposite the bus station, Bloxwich, Cannock Road, Cannock bus station stand 10, Cannock, opposite McDonalds on Church Street and on to Rugeley.

Five hurt in M6 collision

FIVE people, including two children, were taken to hospital after a crash on the M6 in Staffordshire.

A woman was airlifted to Stafford Hospital following the crash involving a car and a lorry between junction 13 for Penkridge and junction 14 for Stafford at 1.20pm on Friday (September 27).

Two children and two men were also treated for minor injuries.

Ambulance Service spokesman Steve Parry said: "The driver of the lorry was assessed for neck pain but later released by paramedics."

The crash on the northbound carriageway caused some delays.

Roll up sleeves

DONORS can roll up their sleeves in Rugeley next week. NHS Blood & Transplant will be in the Garner Suite at Lea Hall Social Club, Sandy Lane, on Friday (October 11). To make an appointment, between 1.30 and 3.30pm, or from 4.30 to 7.30pm, call 0300 1232323.

NEWS FEATURE

IN MY VIEW WITH MARK ANDREWS

SHOCK news from the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, which concluded last week that it was '95 per cent certain' that climate change, er exists.

A bit of a surprise really, because I'm sure most of us were expecting them to say something along the lines of 'we're pretty sure there's no such thing as climate change, so you can make us all redundant'.

Still, the news has got Ban Ki-moon, the Secretary-General of the United Nations, a little bit rattled. He wants leaders of the world to come together next year for an international climate summit.

Of course he does. People like him love summits, don't they? Summits on world energy, a summit on sustainable development, a summit on the EU budget and no doubt summit for the weekend.

Still, at least we can expect it to be a little different from the usual run-of-the mill banquet and booze-up.

For a start, none of the delegates will be arriving on one of those filthy jumbo jets which pollute the sky. Instead they will all be packed like sardines into crowded transcontinental railway carriages, having arrived in mainland Europe or wherever by car ferry.

And instead of being chauffeured to the conference hall in a convoy of gleaming gas-guzzling limousines, the world leaders will all be making their entrance by means of 'sustainable transport' - which presumably means a bike. And what would you say are the odds of any of this happening?

Well a report from the Intergovernmental Panel on Flying Pigs has come to the conclusion that it is 'more than 95 per cent' certain that none of the above will take place.

THIS week hundreds of commuters in London were greeted at the railway stations by anti-smoking campaigners in zombie costumes urging them to give up the cigs.

Given that this was the early-morning rush hour, perhaps they were trying to blend into their surroundings.

CAN'T buy into all the scare stories that 'the lights will go out' if Ed Miliband goes ahead with his plans to freeze energy prices for 20 months.

After all, there were very tight regulations imposed on the energy companies after they were privatised 20-odd years ago, and it seemed to work then.

Trouble is, now that Ed has given two years advanced notice of his plans, the energy companies will almost certainly decide to get in first and put the prices up while they still can. Not that they need much encouraging.

Erin O'Connor filming a video spot for The Face

Before fame – Brownhills girl Erin, aged 18

Model Erin is more than a pretty Face

ELIZABETH JOYCE on the rise of Erin O'Connor, the former Brownhills schoolgirl turned international supermodel and celebrity TV model mentor

ERIN O'CONNOR has landed a mentoring role on The Face.

The show, which started on Monday on Living TV, is the brainchild of Naomi Campbell and aims to find the next megastar model. Some of Erin's scenes have already been shot at a Midlands stately home – allowing her to pop back home and visit her friends and family in Brownhills.

Just like the rest of Erin's life, the show is a far cry from her humble beginnings.

These days, the 35-year-old lives in New York's West Village with her super-tall, super-gorgeous boyfriend, with whom she soon hopes to start a family. She recently revealed that he is The One.

Tall

A regular on the covers of the most prestigious magazines in the world, she has worked for the likes of Christian Dior, Prada, Versace, Giorgio Armani, and Jean-Paul Gaultier, with Karl Lagerfeld describing her as "one of the best models in the world".

Growing up, she was a normal pupil – albeit a terrifically tall one – at Brownhills Community School. There was a little teasing because of her looks, other students called her Morticia and sang the theme tune to The Addams Family as she walked down the corridors, but she overcame it by becoming the class clown.

"You can't control how people perceive you, but you can react and exploit that perception and that's what I did," she explained. "I loved performing and I still do, whether on stage, in front of a camera or when I'm hosting a dinner party. To me that's freedom."

Three faces of the Sky Living show which aims to find the next supermodel, from left, Caroline Winberg, Naomi Campbell, and Erin O'Connor

Despite living on the other side of the Atlantic and constantly travelling around the globe, Erin still returns to her hometown as often as possible.

Not only does she visit her family and friends, but she also supports local causes. Back in 2009, she was the guest of honour at the launch of Walsall Hospice's Starlight Walk in the Arboretum and the year before she helped out at Ogley Hay Nursery's summer fete. It was where she did her work experience as a teenager.

She has two sisters Claire, aged 33, who works in office administration, and Kelly, 38, a teacher, who is married with two sons.

'My parents don't treat any of us differently; they're just delighted each of us is doing what we want in life,' she said. 'My mum and dad are very smart but very humble, unassuming people, who have a tremendous work ethic. Dad worked in a factory and my mum was a cleaner and they instilled in all of us the ability to create and seize opportunity when it presents itself.

"I've always strived to be self-sufficient and to make my own money – the day I was able to buy my parents the council house where we grew up was a real highlight for me."

The 6ft supermodel, who had ambitions of becoming either a dancer or a music teacher as a teen, also bought her father a Ford Modeo.

"I popped an Enya tape in the player and he thought he'd gone to heaven," she said. "Then I discovered he also had recordings of me playing my own compositions on the flute. I used to play in my early teens and intended to train as a music teacher, but fate intervened. That's probably no bad thing as the pieces I composed had names like The Unquiet Grave and Spread the Darkness. But it's so sweet to think that, to this day, my dad still intersperses me with Enya."

Erin, who is perhaps best known for being one of the Marks & Spencer models, was spotted at Clothes Show Live at the NEC in 1996. Her statuesque beauty and alabaster skin made an instant impact and, within a few years, she was on catwalks for the best designers in the world. She has been on the cover of Vogue, worked for Chanel and even made it on to a postage stamp.

There's also her own line of Fairtrade cotton T-shirts and bags, she is a former vice-chair of the British Fashion Council and has regular writing slots for The Times, I-D Magazine and The Guardian.

She took a two-year break in 2009 but is now busier than ever. As well as The Face, she's also the new Radley model.

Erin is planning to use her experience to help up-and-comers on The Face.

"To have a successful, lasting career in this industry you need more than just beauty or prettiness," says the model, who rejected the idea of having a nose job.

"A girl must have an indefinable magic, real character, a strong sense of self. I'm not on the search for physical perfection, I want to see spirit and charisma; fire and force."

THROUGH THE YEARS

1983...

SPEEDWAY fans were lucky to escape serious injury when a lump of concrete smashed through the roof of their coach from a motorway flyover. The Cradley Heath fans were returning from seeing their side race at Eastbourne when vandals hurled a 9in block of concrete from a bridge in Buckinghamshire.

GRANNY Hilda Fellows was tickled pink when she met comedian Ken Dodd and his merry band of diddy men. Mrs Fellows, from Walsall, was one of hundreds of fans who turned out to see the funnyman open Boardman's furniture store in Market Street, Wolverhampton.

THE number of people claiming unemployment benefit rose to more than 3.1 million to give a new jobless rate of 13.3 per cent. The rise was mainly down to the number of school-leavers claiming benefit for the first time. In the West Midlands, unemployment rate rose to 16 per cent.

1993...

IN North Yorkshire it was reported that a 13-year-old arsonist was enjoying a round of 'adventure holidays' at the taxpayers' expense. As part of a two-year supervision order, the youngster, from Richmond, had spent two weeks at a summer camp in Britain, had been on two sailing courses, and had stayed on the shore of a Swedish lake.

STRIKES by Britain's firemen were 'inevitable' said their union leader. The Fire Brigades Union was about to ballot its members about strike action in response to a 1.5 per cent ceiling on public-sector pay rises. Home Secretary Michael Howard said there was no justification for giving firefighters preferential treatment. But FBU leader Ken Cameron accused the Government of putting the public at risk for a marginal amount of money.

WINDOW tycoon Carl Painter was one of the first potential investors to express an interest in taking Wolves over, after owner Sir Jack Hayward said he would be offering the club 'free to a good home'. The Wolves chairman said he would give the club free of charge if somebody came forward with a commitment to invest in the club's future. Mr Painter said he would be prepared to put £10 million into the club.

Net gain as park's new tennis courts served up

Councillor Alan Dudson and Councillor Christine Mitchell cut the ribbon to officially open the tennis courts at the park, watched by representatives from Cannock Chase District Council, Friends of Hednesford Park, Hednesford Town Council, Staffordshire Environmental Fund and contractors PM Harris

THE new tennis courts at Hednesford Park have been served up as part of a £3.1 million Heritage Lottery Fund project.

Representatives from Cannock Chase District Council, Staffordshire Environmental Fund and Friends of Hednesford Park officially opened the courts with a ribbon-cutting ceremony last Wednesday.

This is the first phase of the project part funded by environmental and Heritage Lottery funds.

Five adult tennis courts have been replaced with four adult tennis court and four junior courts all on one level with a new drainage system and new fencing with gates to allow access for all.

The council recently obtained a £3.1m Heritage Lottery Fund grant as part of the improvements to the park and War Memorial.

Fantastic

The full project will take several years to complete.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, culture and sport portfolio leader, said: "I am really pleased with the work that has taken place on the new tennis courts, they look fantastic. This is a great start to a really exciting project for Hednesford Park.

"I hope this investment will help inspire the next generation of tennis stars and give this district the next Andy Murray."

Councillor Alan Dudson said "I am delighted to officially open the new tennis courts at Hednesford Park; this is a great facility for residents and just the start of a bigger project."

John Dutton, chief executive of the environment fund said: "We are happy to be involved in the project and hope this new facility will encourage young people and the community to take up tennis."

What is the point of cutting road lanes?

I AM at a loss as to why planners wish to reduce Horse Fair Road, Rugeley, down to two lanes from four. As a regular traveller through Rugeley for many years I have seen the disruption that road-works have caused by reduced lanes.

The start of work in front of the Globe reduced the Western Springs Road to one lane causing tailbacks to green lane increasing my journey time by 10 minutes.

The bridges many years ago worked like a roundabout, traffic lights were installed because confused drivers were regularly seen going under the wrong side of the bridge and driving up the wrong side of the Brereton bypass.

One thing I do agree to is the removal the St Paul's Road traffic lights because when they break down traffic flows better.

May I suggest the powers that be cone off Horse Fair Road, reducing the lanes to one each way then monitor the traffic for a week including rush hour 8am to 9.30am and 3pm to 5pm.

This will give them something useful to do and if the traffic flows as their computer model predicted then go ahead with the changes but if the traffic backs up through Brereton and along the Western Springs Road, as I suspect it will, then I think the councillors and planners that came up with this idea should be sacked.

May I also suggest that these people hire a minibus and travel together along Armitage Road that resembles a ploughed field. They could have a meeting and come up with an idea to spend the surplus money resurfacing the road.

It would be nice to know who came up with the idea so we know who to vote for next time around!

Interested to hear what MP thinks food banks

I VOTE for the person not the party and in 2010, I voted for Aidan Burley, an educated young man. After the incident in France, his comments on the Olympics and my personal dealings with him, I ask myself was it an error of judgement?

In March I attended a surgery with Mr Burley in the cafe at Morrisons in Rugeley. When I questioned the inappropriate venue, I was not happy with mr Burley's reply.

I am also extremely interested to hear Mr Burley's views on food banks. In the 21st century should there be a need for food banks in the UK? Should we have food banks while at the same time sending billions of pounds abroad in aid?

I did request to accompany Mr Burley on his recent visit to Cannock's food bank, but my response received a negative response.

Farmed pigs deserve better

THE realities of life and death in Britain's factory farms for pigs, hens and cows among others starkly reveal the price animals pay for this type of meat consumption.

Now, there are American-style plans for a 26,000 pig farm in Derbyshire. Yet can you say what is the real difference between pigs, an equally aware and sensitive animal, and, for instance, dogs?

To clarify investigations show the mother pigs furrowing craters in which they give birth but are unable to turn round during their five week's incarceration.

They can only constantly gnaw at the metal bars, and must be suffering an overpowering sense of claustrophobia, and surely despair at being unable to touch their young. If we treated our dogs like this there would be outrage.

Fundraising cake sale

WE would like to congratulate 12-year-old Molly Skelding, of Trentham Close, Heath Hayes, who raised £153.41 for Macmillan Cancer Support on Saturday September 28 with a cake sale outside her house. Well done Molly and thanks to all that supported her.

Looking forward to the same next year.

How expenses are kept so low

YOU reported on the MP for Burntwood, Michael Fabricant, and his expenses. Looked relatively low didn't it?

Well, if you don't bother with regular advertised surgeries in Burntwood, or anywhere else, and don't bother anymore with a local office to serve his constituents it won't be as high as some neighbouring MPs.

But it has been rule changes following the expenses scandal that has helped him. Before these came in 2009 MPs did not have to provide receipts for food up to £25. Mr Fabricant claimed, on average, £340 a month for food – twice the £154 average. When the changes were about to come in he claimed almost the maximum then available, £400, in the final three months of 2009. Anyone seen him at a food bank recently?

COUNCILLOR STEVE NORMAN
Ironstone Road, Burntwood

Forget HS2, just make trains longer

ONE of the main reasons given by supporters of HS2 is lack of capacity on the current system. A Pendolino carriage is 24 metres long and carries 62 people. A Boeing 737-800 aircraft cabin is 30 metres long and carries 189 people. People are quite happy (mostly) to sit in an aircraft seat for a 2.5 hours journey to the Costas, or even a 4.5 hours flight to the Canaries etc, (never mind the long haul flights in the same seats) and have a meal and a drink as well.

The journey from Birmingham to London takes about 1.5 hours. So, why can't we make the seating in a train carriage the same as an aircraft and thereby more than double the capacity of the existing network for a lot less money than £100 billion? Then, increase the number of carriages per train or the frequency and increase the capacity even more!

As for the dubious claims for increased prosperity, I have yet to see in print from any HS2 supporter, an actual worked example of a benefit which would be created, either in the South or the North. Do they think that a plumber from the Black Country is going to take his tools every day by HS2 to work in Notting Hill, because he can get there 20 minutes faster than he can now? The national company that I used to work for actively discouraged unnecessary travel for meetings or business, using video conferencing instead.

FREDERICK LEES, Love Lane, Great Wyrley

Taxes should not be used

THIS HS2 project will save 20 minutes travelling from London to the North. Have ministers forgotten that we are a small country compared to France and Germany. If the existing lines were improved billions of pounds will be saved, and more towns would benefit. I think this ludicrous scheme smells of big profits for the large companies. Taxpayers should not fund it.

Salon challenge a family affair for its new owners

Beautician Helen Grosvenor with Samantha Greenaway and Julie Mcilquham at the refurbished Quills Sun and Beauty salon

A BEAUTY salon in Cheslyn Hay that has opened its doors after its owners spent more than £25,000 on a revamp is a family affair.

Quills Sun and Beauty is run by husband and wife team Andy and Julie Mcilquham.

The pair also employ their son Jack and niece Hannah Cox, who help out with the running of the front desk and other jobs where possible.

Mother-of-two Mrs Mcilquham, who already co-runs a hairdressing salon in Rawnsley, says the pair took the decision to take on the new business venture after they had begun searching for a joint project.

When they heard the Glenthorne Drive property – which was also a tanning shop – was closing down, they decided to 'take on the challenge'.

Different

A full revamp had to be carried out, including the demolition of partition walls as well as fitting new furniture and painting the place from top to bottom.

"It was an old tanning salon which had been there for years and years," said Mr Mcilquham, aged 44, who works fortnightly shifts as an overhead linesman at Network Rail.

"This is my first salon, but we thought we'd take on something a little different together."

Mrs Mcilquham, 43, added."This was something me and my husband wanted to do together. We just decided to take on the challenge.

"We've both used sunbeds in the past, so we thought 'why not give it a go'."

The salon offers a whole variety of treatments, ranging from acrylic nails and false eyelashes through to spray tan and sunbeds.

The team, which has a qualified nurse, also offers anti-wrinkle injections, fillers and chemical face peels.

Meeting hears of town's war role

MORE than 50 people attended a meeting at Pye Green Community Centre to hear a talk on Hednesford's part in the First World War.

Derek Davis' presentation last Thursday highlighted the names of several local people who had been involved. It was the latest in a series on local heritage sponsored by Hednesford Town Council.

To mark next year's centenary of the outbreak of the war it was proposed that a project be undertaken to research the background of these local people and produce a book.

Several people with Hednesford connections had received the highest military accolade for bravery – the Victoria Cross. Consideration would be given as to how these individuals could be commemorated.

To become involved or to receive invitations to future heritage presentations, contact Peter Harrison, town council clerk at peter.harrison@hednesford-tc.gov.uk

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done.

We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Wolverhampton and the surrounding area and Brian is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

All-time Wolves great Broadbent dies at 80

TRIBUTES have been paid to Wolves legend Peter Broadbent, who has died at the age of 80.

The inside forward, who made 497 appearances for the club, was one of Wolves' greatest players of all time.

Recognised as the most skilful player in the club's greatest team, mr Broadbent died peacefully at 2am at Beech House nursing home at Himley. He had been suffering from Alzheimer's Disease for many years but had been cared for by staff at the home.

Mr Broadbent was part of Stan Cullis's all-conquering team that won the Football League title three times and the FA Cup in 1960 before embarking on a series of trail-blazing European floodlit friendlies.

Part of England's 1958 World Cup squad, Dover-born Mr Broadbent, who also scored Wolves' first goal in Europe, netted 145 times in 497 games after arriving as a club-record signing from Brentford for £10,000.

Headlines

Former team-mate Ron Flowers said Mr Broadbent was the first player he met when he arrived at the club. They lived together for three years having both arrived at Molineux as teenagers.

Flowers said Mr Broadbent's arrival at Wolves made huge headlines back in February 1951, when he signed from Brentford, aged 17. Flowers signed just over a year later and the pair shared digs during their formative years at the club.

"I remember Peter being a big signing for the club. He was a huge signing and a very gifted player," he said.

"Peter was the first person I met when I arrived at the club, we were in digs together as a 17-year-olds," he said.

Peter Knowles, who made 191 appearances and scored 64 goals, believes Mr Broadbent was a true Wolves legend.

After leaving Wolves in 1965, Mr Broadbent joined Shrewsbury Town His other teams included Aston Villa and Bromsgrove Rovers. After football, the Broadbents ran a greengrocers in Halesowen and settled in Codsall.

Team member and senior partner Hamish Duncan said: "The whole day was great fun and a brilliant team-building experience.

"It's the first time we've entered and as competition was strong, we were amazed to come a commendable 14th."

The challenge included more than 4km of kayaking as well as orienteering, trail-biking and mental agility quests and was held at Pershore College in Worcestershire.

Last year's Vet Charity Challenge generated over £21,000 and this year the event is expected to pass the £50,000 mark.

Get up for the craic at club's Irish night

A CANNOCK club will be enjoying the craic when it hosts its annual Irish Hooley night this weekend. St Mary's Social Club, on Walsall Road, is holding the event on Saturday (October 5).

Irish band The Craicers will be taking the stage and the Birmingham Irish Pipes and Drums Band will also perform. Irish Dancers will show off their moves as people tuck into a two-course Irish meal. There will be an Irish Come Dancing competition with money will be donated to St Mary's Church funds.

Tickets are £15. Call 01543 572092 or 579364.

Police cadets get head start in the fight against crime

CANNOCK youngsters tried their uniforms on for size at the launch of the second Staffordshire Young Police Cadets unit.

The cadet scheme was a key election pledge for Staffordshire's Police and Crime Commissioner Matthew Ellis.

It aims to strengthen links between the police and young people and promote good citizenship.

Following the successful launch of a Cadets unit in Stafford, around 30 youngsters, aged 14 to 17, and their families attended the opening event for the Cannock unit last week.

Mr Ellis said: "Staffordshire's Young Police Cadets Service is all about encouraging young people – some from challenging backgrounds – through a positive and vibrant programme.

"The heart of the scheme is to reconnect youngsters more widely with the police service in Staffordshire.

"It isn't about recruiting police officers – it's about developing young people and giving them a sense of civic duty, building character and helping them become responsible citizens.

"We've already had great feedback about the Stafford unit from members of the public and I'm sure that the Cannock Cadets will be a big success."

The new unit will meet every Monday evening at Cannock Community Fire Station.

Chief Constable Mike Cunningham said: "Cadets take part in lots of different activities and learn more about what police life is like. They get to wear their own police cadet uniform and help keep communities safe and reassured.

"This could mean giving out safety advice to local people or helping us to find out about their concerns.

"They also learn more about how we track down criminals, about the gadgets and equipment we use to fight crime and have a go at operational personal safety training."

As well as filling in registration forms, the new Cadets were measured for their uniforms which are being sponsored by the Chase Community Partnership.

Vibrant

Councillor George Adamson, Leader of Cannock Chase Council, said: "The Chase Community Partnership is delighted to sponsor the cadet scheme in Cannock. This is a fantastic opportunity for young people in the district to learn how our local police operate to track down criminals. They will gain key life skills, make a difference in the local community and gain valuable experience for their future careers."

Cadets work towards Duke of Edinburgh bronze, silver and gold awards having a go at hiking, climbing and orienteering.

The commissioner has stated he will not redirect money used for frontline policing to fund the cadets. For more details, visit www.staffordshire-pcc.gov.uk/police-cadets

The evening will raise money to enable breast cancer patients to have some TLC. It will feature a fashion show in which patients will model clothes by Dragonflies Frocks and Beauty. There will be stalls and beauty treatments, entertainment featuring belly dancing with audience participation and music from The Electric Band.

Link probed as staff are locked in by store raiders

TERRIFIED workers were shut in a storeroom by robbers at a Penkridge supermarket.

Three men went into the Co-Operative store in Wolverhampton Road in the early morning attack last Thursday, one armed with a hammer.

Penkridge Co-Op store

One worker aged in his 20s suffered a facial injury when he fell over during the robbery and had to be treated by paramedics.

Police believe it could be linked to other convenience store raids which have taken place in the past week at Spar shops in Wordsley Green and Wombourne.

In Wombourne, staff were locked in a toilet while masked raiders armed with a lump hammer stole cash and cigarettes. The offenders fled from there in what is believed to be, an orange-coloured Ford Focus.

Patrols

Sarah Davison, for Staffordshire Police, said forensic tests had been carried out at the scene of the latest raid. Police have pledged to step up patrols and said they would be investigating a link between the crimes.

Inspector Geoff Knight, Policing Commander for South Staffordshire Local Policing Team, said: "Due to the similar offender descriptions and the fact they have locked staff in a separate area of the store while they stole property we believe these crimes are linked."

The Penkridge raid happened at around 5.30am last Thursday (September 26). The offenders were white, 5ft 6 to 5ft 8ins and believed to be in their mid 30s.

Anyone with information is asked to call officers on 101.

Stores chip in to help Macmillan

STORES in Cannock did their bit towards Macmillan's Biggest Coffee Morning.

A number of town centre outlets participated in the annual event, which is the charity's flagship fundraiser.

Pat-a-Cakes, which specialises in making bespoke personalised celebration cakes and toppers, sold cakes and held a tombola. Cooper Kettle and Recess cafes donated 20p for every cup of coffee sold, while Kiss and Make Up, beauty and make up specialists, gave customers a free nail varnish with every coffee sold.

Cannock Rotary Club held a book stall to bolster funds and £523.16 was raised.

Cannock Shopping Centre manager Natal Chapman said: "I am really pleased that local shops have held a coffee morning in one form or another to help Macmillan Cancer Support. It's great that we can play our part."

CLUB NEWS

Strawberry tea weather was spot-on

CHASETOWN TWG

FUNDRAISING has been at the top of the agenda for guild members.

The guild's nominated charity for 2013/14 is the Renal Care Unit at the Samuel Johnson Hospital.

The first event was in June, a strawberry tea. The weather was spot-on for an afternoon tea in the garden at the home of chairman Vicky Jones.

In August a barbecue was also held in perfect weather when committee member Wendy Roberts was our hostess.

A big thank you must go to Vicky and Colin, Wendy and Derek and to all guild members and visitors who attended and worked behind the scenes to enable a considerable amount of money to be made.

Rounding it all off, members held a car boot sale at the beginning of September.

The group has enjoyed speakers whose talks were educational and entertaining.

In May, Ann Wood's talk was Careers, Concerts and Catastrophes in which she described her progression from a would-be dancer to event's organiser at Shugborough Hall.

In June, artist Jo Emmans spoke about Old Sayings.

In July, the group had a social evening and in August learned of the healing properties of the aloe vera plant with speakers Ruth Harvey and Alison Taylor.

All new faces can be sure of a warm welcome. Call 01543 686210 for details.

Ladies in disbelief over victim's story

Cannock WI members enjoy a cream tea boat trip on a visit to Stratford-upon-Avon

CANNOCK WI

PRESIDENT Chris Pace wished a happy birthday to September members and hoped those who were not well a speedy recovery.

Linda Smith was thanked for hosting a most enjoyable cheese and wine evening.

A donation was given to one of the charities from the recycle party when members enjoyed a happy social afternoon.

Lunch is again booked at The Rag Restaurant following the October meeting.

Hayes Green will host the Group meeting on October 24 at St John's Church.

Members listened in disbelief to guest speaker Vivienne, a child abuse victim. She told how she finally got the help she needed to take her parents to court and her father was given a prison sentence. She hoped by going public it would give strength to other abused children to not be afraid to get help.

Ellen won the homemade bread competition.

At the October 10 meeting, the speaker is from Birmingham's Dogs Home, the competition is a Halloween mask.

Suitcase full of memories

CHASETOWN WI

SPEAKER for August was Mrs Marjorie Boothby.

Her talk on her journey from prison visitor to Buckingham Palace to collect her MBE was fascinating.

She explained how she had been persuaded by a friend to become a prison visitor, which led to her becoming involved in working with the prisoners, particularly as a lay preacher, and of her pride when she was awarded the MBE.

In September, Reg Fulleleve visited with his suitcase. It contained series of items like an old Co-Op number, which brought back many memories. There was talk about Sunday School anniversaries, tiny good luck charms, which ladies carried around in their purses.

Tea and cakes were served at the end. The group meets at the Old Mining College, Chasetown, on the third Wednesday of each month at 7pm.

Market boss sets out stall to attract young entrepreneurs

BUDDING entrepreneurs are being encouraged to set up their own business at Penkridge Market after a previous offer fell on deaf ears.

Market bosses are running a scheme to help youngsters who have left school to run a free stall for two weeks to test their business ideas.

By Charlotte Lilley

It was previously launched in August but after nobody took up the offer, managers are appealing again for anyone who might be interested.

Successful candidates will be entered into a competition to win a six-month spot at a discounted rate.

Busy

They will receive advice from market manager Matt Williams and other traders.

Mr Williams said: "We know there are some young talented people out there who probably have great business ideas, but perhaps haven't had the confidence or opportunity to give it a go.

"We would love to help them and give them a great start to their career.

"This time of year would also be a good time to test out ideas, as people start their Christmas shopping early and the market gets extremely busy in the run up to Christmas."

The competition is open to anyone aged 16 – 19 years old, who lives in Penkridge or the surrounding area.

The winner will receive a 6 month pitch on the market at a discounted rate, plus advice on marketing, sourcing suppliers and general business support from experienced market traders.

Mr Williams added: "We know how tough it can be to start up a business at any age, but especially when you're young.

"We've noticed one or two really bright, enthusiastic young people on the market and we just wanted to give everyone a chance, and who knows where it might lead to, we could have another Alan Sugar in the making."

Penkridge Market runs twice weekly at its site off the A449, on Saturday and Wednesday.

A market and car boot sale is held on a Bank Holiday Monday.

For details call 01785 714221.

Shopping and beauty all under one roof

Business Partners Jo Stokes, left and Michelle Greatbatch celebrate moving into new premises in Stone Cross

TWO business owners from Penkridge are celebrating after joining forces to move into a new premises.

Michelle Greatbatch, 39, who runs Beauty Inc and Jo Stokes, owner of Jo Jo's Interiors have brought their businesses together in Stone Cross.

They are now based under one roof and offer handmade products, including candles, chocolates and canvasses as well as beauty treatments such as teeth whitening and waxing.

Mrs Greatbatch said: "Jo and I met at a pop-up shop and we hit it off straight away. We decided to have our own shop that was open full-time and combine shopping and beauty.

"We have been open for a couple of weeks now and the feedback we have received has been great. There isn't anything else like this in the area offering women the unique opportunity of retail therapy and beauty therapy."

Three jobs were created with the merger of the two shops and all of the furniture has been recycled from local businesses.

Mrs Greatbatch added: "Jo and I are both looking forward to this new venture."

Challenge proves just too much to stomach

by Mark Shipp

BEEN there, done that, got the T-Shirt. Well the Phat Pac's flat cap to be precise.

It was with some trepidation that I tried the Man v Food challenge at the Mexican diner in Rugeley. Many had expressed an interest in the ultimate burrito feast, but in the end only two stood up to be counted, Yours Truly and 23-year-old chef Pete Hargreaves.

One previous customer had polished off the meal, which weighed more than four kilogrammes, in under half an hour, 27 minutes and 47 seconds to be precise. So this was the task set down to Pete and I.

Merited

For the record, the 30ins platter featured three giant burritos surrounded by nachos. Oh, and there was also a milkshake to wash it down.

With ingredients including rice, chicken, beef, cabbage, cheese, beans, guacamole, jalapenos and hot salsa, this was not for the faint-hearted. Despite our best efforts, after 30 minutes and one-and-half burritos each, we could stomach no more.

Tasty though it was, the challenge had us stuffed. It merited an 'I beat the Phat Pac ultimate food challenge' baseball cap , though and a place on the Horsefair diner's Hall of Fame – or Wall of Shame if you like.

Pete, of Brownhills, supported by friends and family, took the honours at the weigh-in as he had less left on his plate. Owner Theresa Harris has more food challenges in the pipeline, including one involving a pulled pork burger, and Pete is happy to take the test again.

Before – the ultimate burrito platter

After – at least the milkshake's gone

Egging

You can't fail to like Theresa. The amiable American, who runs the diner with her partner Agha, serves up such enthusiasm and led the support for both contestants, egging us on throughout. She may have claimed we had her worried at one stage, polishing off the first burrito in around eight minutes, but deep down I think she really knew it was going to defeat us.

And, despite our ultimate burrito failure, she said: "I am really proud of both. They stepped up to the plate and gave it a really good go."

Theresa is planning a monthly food challenge. Call Phat Pac's on 01889 582904 for more details.

It's a family affair in Great North Run

Wearing their medals are Liane and Jon Brazier, Jenna Holford, Adam Colley. With him is son Jack, aged two

A CANNOCK man proved age was no barrier when he completed the Great North Run.

Jon Brazier, aged 60, of Pye Green, completed the course with his daughter Liane, son-in-law Adam Colley and friend Jenna Holford.

Between them they raised around £1,400 for Cancer Research, with a further £600 collected for Katharine House Hospice.

Jon and Liane finished arm-in-arm in just over three hours, Adam having finished ahead of them in two hours 214 minutes and Jenna four minutes behind him.

Despite Jon having taking part in the run before, this time it had extra significance as he ran for the two charities.

"We were running in memory of my brother-in-law Gary Addison who passed away in February, aged 45 from a brain tumour," he said. "Liane and I were both very close to him."

Make a place for hungry is agency's plea

PARISHIONERS and pupils across Cannock Chase are being urged to make a contribution towards feeding the hungry this Harvest.

Cafod, the Catholic Agency for Overseas Development, wants families to put an extra pound aside after their weekly shop, or for children to save a small a part of their pocket money.

Donating the money to Cafod means funds will be shared with some of the poorest people in the world, making a long-term difference to the fight against global hunger.

Around the world, one in eight of all men, women and children go to bed hungry, the agency said. It added there was enough food to feed everyone but the way it is grown, sold and distributed means that some of the world's poorest people do not get their fair share.

Cafod patron Cardinal Cormac Murphy-O'Connor is encouraging people to take up the call to 'Make a Place at your Table', not just for Harvest but in the long term.

He said: "I've been privileged to visit some of the countries where Cafod works. There I have sat and talked with people who, often due to circumstances beyond their control, struggle to provide for themselves and their families.

"It grieves my heart to see their God-given potential wasted and to watch how they have been excluded from the feast that God spreads for us all.

"Making a place at your table for our brothers and sisters around the world who face hunger and hardship is a powerful way to express our shared faith."

Celebrate

Abigail McMillan, diocesan manager for Cannock said: "Harvest is usually a time to celebrate the gifts of the land and remind ourselves of all the good things we have.

"However, for many living in some of the poorest parts of the world they simply can't get enough food.

"We're really grateful for the support of the parishes, schools and individuals in Cannock.

"By taking part in this scheme, people will be genuinely making a place at their table for those who need it most."

Death drive charge trial

A MAN will go on trial next year accused of knocking down a pensioner who later died. Richard Thompson, aged 31, of Shaftesbury Road, in Rugeley, appeared at Stafford Crown Court where he pleaded not guilty to causing death by careless driving. A trial will take place on February 10. Brenda Davies, aged 79, of Rugeley, died in hospital two months after being struck by a car in Western Springs Road in the town on December 3 last year.

Award named in honour of inspirational teenager

Stephen Sutton the first winner of the award named in his honour at Chase Terrace Technology College

A TEENAGER who set himself a series of challenges after being diagnosed with incurable cancer has been hailed as an inspiration and had an award named in his honour.

The Stephen Sutton Award for Inspiring Others was launched by Chase Terrace Technology College.

The 18-year-old, who took A-Levels at the school, was guest of honour at a presentation night there to give out certificates and awards.

But he was shocked when one was created in his name.

After being diagnosed, Stephen, of Burntwood, sat down and wrote a wish list of 46 things he wanted to do.

Part of this has included raising money for the Teenage Cancer Trust. After reaching his £100,000 goal, he now has his sights on £150,000.

Julia Hayburn, director of student support at the school, said Stephen was a daily inspiration.

She said: "The idea of the award fits with number 42 on Stephen's bucket list that he could inspire someone to become a doctor or a fundraiser."

Wacky pair cheer up young patients

Wendy & Wesley meet patient Tabatha Morrissey

PATIENTS at Stafford Hospital's children's ward, including six-year-old Tabatha Morrissey from Cannock, received some cheery visitors last week, when Wendy & Wesley from the Wacky Warehouse at the Catch Corner Fayre & Square pub in Acton Gate paid them a visit to hand out gifts.

Su Gaskell, Wacky Team leader, who brought Wesley & Wendy along, said: "The whole purpose of today was to achieve the company's goal of making people smile and I hope we achieved that."

Probe after ex-workers' details are seen online

INFORMATION about 44 former workers at South Staffordshire District Council were accidentally published online, sparking an investigation.

The information 'was hidden but could be accessed', according to council chiefs.

It is believed the records, published as part of a spreadsheet, were viewed just twice but letters have been sent out to staff affected.

The authority said it had taken steps to make sure it did not happen again and has apologised to those whose details were shared. The matter has also been referred to the Information Commissioner.

by Catherine Dalton

Notified

David Pattison, director of legal and public health protection at the district council, said the document was taken down as soon as they were notified.

"The information concerned 44 ex-members of staff and was inadvertently published as part of a spreadsheet, stating general figures that we are required to publish under the Equality Act 2010," he said. "The information was hidden but nevertheless could be accessed.

"We have investigated how many people could have viewed the information and our records suggest there was only two external views, which we believe that these were both from the same person who reported the issue to us.

"Nevertheless, this should not have happened and we apologise to anyone who may have been affected by this."

He said 'immediate steps' had been taken to make sure it does not happen again.

It is believed information inadvertently published online included names, reason for leaving the authority, ethnic origin and sexual orientation.

HSE investigates death

THE death of an elderly patient at Stafford Hospital is being investigated by the Health and Safety Executive. A probe is being carried out after it emerged the trust which runs the hospital is being prosecuted over the death of 66-year-old Gillian Astbury of Hednesford in April 2007 after not receiving insulin. It led the HSE to launch criminal proceedings against Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust. Now another investigation has been launched. Kevin Hegarty, of the HSE, said the death of an elderly patient at Stafford Hospital in July 2013 met investigation criteria.

Serving up soup to raise charity funds

Beryl Lovell, Bob Williams, Angela Slater and Jean Mawson promote the fundraiser for Leukaemia and Lymphoma Research at Chasetown Methodist Church

A PENSIONER who is determined to raise £1,000 for charity is holding a soup kitchen-style fundraiser in Burntwood.

Jean Mawson managed to collect £692 at her 75th birthday party in June. Instead of presents she asked for cash from her friends and family. She said: "I did not want presents. The money went up to £802.

"I want to get it up to £1,000 so I decided to put on a fundraising soup kitchen. Lots of people have offered to help. They have been very generous."

There will also be a raffle on the day, Saturday, October 12, with a selection of prizes up for grabs.

The soup kitchen is being held at Chasetown Methodist Church in Lawnswood Avenue from noon to 2pm.

Mrs Mawson said she would be making pea, ham and vegetable soups with money raised going to Leukaemia & Lymphoma Research. "There'll be plenty of variety for people," she said. "I want as many people as possible to come."

Expectations exceeded on mine tribute

THE number of names to be added to a miners' memorial in Hednesford has passed the 900 mark – three times more than was originally expected.

The memorial recognises thousands of miners who worked at the Cannock Chase coalfields.

Work to install hundreds of bricks engraved with the names of former miners around the Davy Lamp tribute will begin in November, it has been confirmed this week.

It had been due to start in October but due to the surge of interest it had to be put back by one month.

by Laura Blyth

Project

More than 1,000 named bricks were added to the memorial in Market Street last year.

The project proved so popular that the body behind it, Chaps – Chase Arts In Public Spaces – took on more applications for another phase of brick dedication.

Chaps vice-chairman Mike Mellor said the group had been overwhelmed by the number of applications.

As a result, the deadline to apply was extended to the middle of this month from August.

Mr Mellor said: "We've had more than 900 requests for named bricks.

"It has far exceeded our expectations. We thought for this phase we'd get around 300 names."

"It means a slight delay to the work starting.

"We hope the contract work will start in November this year, weather permitting.

"And the dedication ceremony will be in April or May time – close to the anniversary of the phase one dedication ceremony.

Chaps has received applications for named bricks from as far away as Canada.

Health staff honoured

THE winners of awards celebrating the best of Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust will be announced tomorrow (Friday) in a ceremony at Chase Golf Club, Pottal Pool. The Mid Staffs Stars staff award scheme recognises and rewards best practice at Cannock and Stafford Hospitals. It is the second time the ceremony has been held and around 85 nominations were received for the 12 categories. Chief Executive Maggie Oldham said: "We are grateful to everyone who has taken the time to nominate individuals or teams who they think are deserving of recognition – and we are delighted to celebrate their contribution."

Short Heath Royal British Legion on parade for Remembrance Day in 1958

Members June Fletcher, Marjorie Fletcher and Vera Rowley (seated) celebrate the 70th anniversary

Vera Rowley leads the parade in Church Road in 1993

Legion branch ladies' group is celebrating 70th anniversary

A ROYAL British Legion group formed by women during the dark days of the Second World War has celebrated its 70th anniversary.

by Deborah Hardiman

The women's section of the legion's Short Heath and District Branch marked the milestone with a gathering attended by around 30 members. The branch, based in Church Road, Short Heath, Willenhall, was set up in 1943 and was active in raising funds to buy the district headquarters next door.

Member Sheila Bate, born the same year that the section was formed, says she cannot remember a time when her family was not involved with the work of the branch.

As a child, the house was always host to a steady stream of visitors. And when her mother Margaret James was paralysed at the age of 35, the group rallied round to provide support.

"I will always remember how kind all those ladies were to our family," said Mrs Bate, of Barmouth Close. "My mother's first wheelchair was provided by the branch, it was one of the old wartime fabric ones."

Mrs James joined the branch shortly after it was formed and Sheila's grandmother and aunts used to attend. "In the early days the ladies were not allowed in the main legion club," Sheila recalled.

"They used to meet in a small room in what was called 'the cottage', but you had to be a member of the British Legion to go into the club.

"They could go in if their husbands were with them but if they didn't have husbands, if they were war widows, for example, they couldn't go in, so they decided to form a women's section."

Mrs Bate, 70, has been a member of the section since the 1960s, when she started going to the club with her husband John.

"I became more involved when our son Sean joined the Grenadier Guards in 1987," she added.

The section has seen a fall in membership in recent years, falling from 300 a decade ago to 189 today. But chairman and secretary Vera Rowley saud there is still a healthy interest in the group.

Mrs Rowley, 81, of Mitre Close, New Invention, has been a member for 43 years. "I love it," she said. "I was the standard bearer for 20 years. I think it's great that the ladies' section is still going. This is at a time when so many legions are in decline and closing.

"We go on trips and have socials once a month, including bingo. This year we've been to Llangollen on a boat trip, which was fabulous."

One of the highlights of her time as standard bearer was taking part in a Remembrance Day parade at Birmingham's National Indoor Arena.

For the 70th anniversary celebrations, which were held last week, the section's meeting room was decked out in red, white and blue bunting, while the members tucked into a buffet supper with old-time music in the background.

There was a special anniversary cake to mark the occasion, while the night was rounded of with a game of bingo.

Raffle

Section president Marjorie Fletcher, now aged 89, joined the group when she moved from Coventry in 1968.

"I think one of the reasons we have done well is we all work together very well. We raise funds quite a lot,and we have a big raffle at Christmas. she said. "The club provides donations to charity throughout the year."

The group meets on the second Monday of the month in the cottage at the club's entrance, and a fish and chip supper is planned for later this month.

The club was thriving in the 1950s when this picture was taken at an official dinner

Denture Clinic

Infectious laugher, happy moments and enjoying 'me' time – meet denture implant couple John and Gillian.

Love is sharing smiles, a second chance of romance and two . . .

Transformations

Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS (Eng) (GDC108353)

LOVE is a second chance of romance, embracing life and sharing smiles – lots of them. For retired couple Gillian and John, sharing time together, enjoying holidays, meals out and trips to the theatre, life has opened an unexpected new chapter of happiness after they both lost their partners.

Their laughter is infectious and their zest for life inspirational. The widow and widower, both young 70-somethings, met at a mutual friend's golden wedding party and the rest, as they say, is history.

But John didn't only discover a new soul mate, he also found a new patient for denturist Steven Burchell DipCDT RCS (Eng).

Principal of the Denture Clinic in North Street, Dudley, Steven says: "They're such refreshing company and I am thrilled they are so happy together.

"But I'm also pleased we were able to resolve a long-standing lower denture problem for Gillian as well as create a lovely warm smile for her that suits her personality."

John recalls he was first to attend the Denture Clinic after spending nearly four years "perusing stories in the papers" about Steven's work.

Like many denture wearers he had encountered stabilisation problems with his lower denture as gums receded with the normal ageing process. "I knew I had to get something done because when I was driving my lower teeth could dance up and down," says John.

Crunchy salads

Steven referred him to dental implantologist Jon Pugh BDS MSc, with whom the denturist has along-standing professional relationship.

"I decided to go for an implant-retained over-denture which clips on to two fixings. I would never let anything stop me from enjoying a meal out before I had the implants, but things are great now. I can have steak, eat crunchy salads and feel free to have anything off the menu," he says.

Gillian had endured a similar stabilisation problem for two years and was persuaded by John to see Steven because her dentures "were always loose."

Again an implant-retained over-denture was prescribed and Mr Pugh also rebuilt Gillian's upper front teeth with crowns. The results are obvious: Natural looking, functional teeth and an engaging smile.

"Previous dental treatment could never resolve my problems. If I ate out I'd have to order soft options , but I put up with it," says Gillian.

"We laugh a lot, smile a lot and enjoy life. This is my 'me' time," she adds.

And what of their experience at the Denture Clinic? "Steven is like family to us," says John.

Steven added: "By using implant retained over-dentures we can guarantee to resolve stability issues. We prescribe and produce our dentures on the premises and it means I can be fastidious about quality."

Options

Traditional

THE Denture Clinic is renowned for its natural look. Denturist Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS (Eng), says: "Quality, traditional dentures can be hugely effective."

Suction

DENTURES which use suction to stay in place are helping to resolve common stability problems. The Ultra Suction teeth are held in place by tiny valve-operated devices fitted into the prosthetic.

Implant retained

DENTURES retained by implants offer a guaranteed solution to stability issues. Implant procedures are available at the Denture Clinic Dudley and Wolverhampton premises through Total Implant Solutions.

Teenager carried a fake gun

A TEENAGER has been locked up for six months for having a loaded ball-bearing gun in a public park.

Thomas White, aged 18, of Bramble Drive, Hednesford, had spray-painted part of the gun black 'to make it look more real,' Cannock magistrates heard.

Andrew Bodger, prosecuting, said White was in Cannock Park on August 8 with a group of young males who suddenly ran away.

The park keeper later saw White walking around with something hidden in his trouser waistband. Police stopped him in Pye Green Road and saw him discard an object under a car. It was a metal imitation handgun.

White pleaded guilty to possessing an imitation firearm in a public place and to three cases of assault and causing £2,630 of damage to a car. He was sentenced to 26 weeks in a young offenders institution and ordered to pay £2,630 compensation.

Residents near waste site make reports of foul smells

RESIDENTS living near a controversial tip have reported strange smells which were investigated by the Environment Agency.

A large number of complaints were made by members of the public living near the Poplars Landfill site in Lichfield Road, Cannock, officials have confirmed.

The Environment Agency said that following a full investigation it had discovered that the smell was coming from nearby land-spreading activity, not the landfill site.

Environment Agency spokesman Sharon Robinson said: "The smells were reported to us on Friday."

The £24 million waste site at the Poplars Landfill has been plagued by complaints about foul smells since it began operating in 2011, with more than 80 families pursuing legal action against the operators Biffa.

Bosses have spent more than £800,000 making improvements to the plant, which recycles food waste, in an effort to stop odours affecting the nearby Newlands Park Estate

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley confirmed he had received complaints from constituents about the smells last week and said he would continue to support residents in raising complaints.

Record number in reading challenge

A RECORD number of youngsters in Staffordshire took part in a national reading task. The initiative is aimed at children aged four-to-11 and runs each year from July until September.

Youngsters sign up at their local library and read six books of their choice, collecting stickers and other rewards along the way.

This year's theme was The Creepy House and in Staffordshire, a total of 14,098 signed up. Of those, 63 per cent completed the six-book requirement.

Open auditions for new play

Friends Megan Walsh and Sarah Shaw promote the show

A NEWLY-formed production company is holding open auditions for its debut play.

Like a Virgin features the hits of Madonna and explores the lives of best friends Angela and Maxine. It will be staged in Lichfield by Source Productions of Great Wyrley.

The group is auditioning on Sunday, October 6 from 1pm at Great Wyrley Senior Citizens Centre, Broadmeadow Lane.

Bosses want two young women in their late teens/early 20s and a man and woman to play characters aged between 30 and 40.

MUSIC REVIEWS

The Chains gang return

GRUNGE rock veterans Alice In Chains return with an excellent mainstream hard rock album in The Devil Put Dinosaurs Here.

Grunge veterans Alice In Chains are no dinosaurs and they have a Brum gig

Singer William DuVall, with the band since they reformed after Layne Staley's death, has come into his own whilst Jerry Cantrell lays down impressive heavy riffs. They should shake Birmingham's O2 Academy to its foundations on November 13.

A decade on from their debut The Kings of Leon produce a patchy sixth album, Mechanical Bull, that ranges from sonically thrilling melodic rock – Supersoaker – to sexist sub-T.Rex boogie such as Rock City.

But the good stuff outweighs the bad with Tennessee's Followill clan cranking up the guitars on Don't Matter and putting some groove into their southern rock on Family Tree.

There's more filler than killer on the newly shaven-headed Jessie J's second album Alive, her vocal showboating failing to cover up the lack of a Domino or Price Tag. Opener It's My Party and the mildly dubstep-influenced Magnetic are about the best of a lacklustre bunch of flabbily formulaic songs.

Her energetic persona and debut album hits should carry the day when she is in concert at the LG Arena on October 18.

Troumaca are an influential band on the Birmingham scene and they live up to their near legendary local status with this cool and laid-back album, The Grace, a cool blend of reggae and dance music influences that they turn very much into their own sound. Surprisingly tropical to come out of Brum, it is a new second city evolution of reggae and recommended to anyone who likes bands such as Dreadzone and Massive Attack. They're at Digbeth's Rainbow Warehouse on October 26.

The frenetic and quirky rising star of R&B Janelle Monae gets heavyweight support on her second album of sprightly funk The Electric Lady. Her biggest influence, Prince, contributes on Give Em What They Want and soul singer Erykah Badu duets on Q.U.E.E.N.

Melodic rockers from Norfolk, Deaf Havana, who have opened for Bruce Springsteen and Muse, have got an unflashy, traditional style that's solid, reliable but not very exciting. New album Old Souls could be a grower, thought and the folk-tinged Kings Road Ghosts is a highlight, and they'll have plenty of fans at their Birmingham gig in the HMV Institute on October 19.

Trent Reznor's influential industrial rock outfit Nine Inch Nails return after five years with album Hesitation Marks, a collaboration with Alan Moulder and Atticus Ross. Came Back Haunted is a highlight, epitomising NIN's exciting blend of hard rock and electronics.

The Innocents is the name Moby has attached to the group of collaborators he has gathered around for his latest excursion into lush electronica with vintage influences for an album of the same name. The involvement of cultish characters such as Wayne Coyne, Skylar Grey and Mark Lanegan doesn't seem to have inspired the New York technonaut. Innocents is as dull as dishwater with the best moments being the likable falsetto of Damien Jurado on the melancholy Almost Home and Coyne-Moby's Polyphonic Spree-like The Perfect Life.

Glasgow's The Fratellis return after five years to a music scene that may be more responsive to their 1960s-style R&B/pop. On new album We Need Medicine they have a mod-like sound akin to The Small Faces and Them and more recent outfits like The Strypes and The Bees.

Their Wulfrun Hall gig on November 26 should be a lively affair with songs such as This Old Ghost Town and the Stones-ish Shotgun Shoes.

Survivors

It's time for the twelfth studio album from the 33-year-old Bradford punk-folk outfit New Model Army who have never had a hit but do have a loyal following.

Justin Sullivan's band are given a more polished sheen on Between Dog and Wolf, which was finished in Los Angeles, but the atmospheric, anthemic feel suits these survivors. They will be in concert at Bilston's Robin 2 on November 17.

Australian folk-roots singer-songwriter Emily Barker & The Red Clay Halo deserve a bigger audience for her atmospheric songs and a distinctive voice with just a hint of Dolly Parton-esque warble. She provided the theme tunes to such moody dramas as the UK Wallander and The Shadow Line. Dear River will see her fanbase grow and she is in concert at Bromsgrove Atrix on October 21 and at Birmingham Glee Club on November 19.

Voice drowned out by drums

Dan Whitehouse
Crescent Theatre, B'ham

WOLVERHAMPTON'S singer and songwriter Dan Whitehouse launched his second full album before a sold-out Crescent Theatre where he appeared with a full band including, oddly enough, two drummers.

Not surprisingly he opened with a track from his new album Reaching for a State of Mind, Come To Me, which was over-powered by too much percussion.

With both sets of drums banging away, Dan's voice was a little lost and the harmonies of a rather nervy Harriet Harkcom were barely audible. This problem carried into with the next song The Light.

Harsh

Dan finally came through with Come Back where, without the intrusion of the harsh percussion, his distinctive voice could be heard clearly.

The Birmingham-based singer was getting into his stride by the time he got to two of his best ballads They Care and Three Bodies. Dan tries awfully hard to please and include his audience but he should concentrate more on relaxing and letting his talent speak for itself.

In songs such as When We Were Sleeping and My Heart Doesn't Age you get a real feel for just how clever and intricate his writing is.

Expect the unexpected

A MAGNIFICENT seven magicians join forces for a mind-boggling night of trickery when The Illusionists arrive in Wolverhampton next week as part of their world tour.

Each illusionist is a master of their field, ranging from mind-reading to escapology. They include Dan Sperry – The Anti-Conjurer – who is a master of shocking illusions. Jinger 'The Enchantress' Leigh and Mark 'The Gentleman' Kalin will make the impossible seem real, whilst Philip Escoffey – 'The Mentalist' – will apparently be invading minds in the audience.

Jeff 'The Trickster' Hobson blends magic and comedy while Kevin 'The Inventor' James is a master of deception. Andrew Basso – 'The Escapologist' – is set to impress with his death-defying escapes. Expect to be baffled and, most of all, expect the unexpected.

The Illusionists are at Wolverhampton Civic Hall on Tuesday, October 8. Tickets range from £32.50 to £40 plus fees. Call 0870 320 7000 or www.wolvescivic.co.uk

FASHION guru Gok Wan was joined by fellow panto stars Stephanie Beacham, John Partridge and Danielle Hope as Birmingham Hippodrome's revealed details of its big festive show Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs.

The 39-year-old TV presenter from Leicester will be making his pantomime debut starring as The Man In The Mirror, while John Partridge, best known for playing Christian in EastEnders will play the handsome Prince.

Danielle Hope, 21, who won BBC TV's talent show Over the Rainbow to star as Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz at the London Palladium, will be starring as Snow White.

Ventriloquist

Screen actress Stephanie Beacham, who appeared in Dynasty, will be the focus for boos and hisses as The Wicked Queen. West End regular Gary Wilmot is playing a Dame for the first time and ventriloquist Paul Zerdin plays Muddles.

No actual dwarfs will feature in the production with the seven played by 'physical theatre' actors in special costumes.

The show runs at the Hurst Street theatre from December 19 to February 2. Tickets are priced from £12 to £39. Contact the box office on 0844 338 5000.

REVIEW

Full use made of excellent set

Jekyll & Hyde – The Musical', Backstreet Theatre Company, Prince of Wales Centre, Cannock

IT was good to see Backstreet have moved more toward the mainstream with this their latest production, although Jekyll & Hyde still showed this company's leaning toward the avant-garde.

Director Michelle Windsor's production included some well-choreographed chorus numbers and plenty of drama, which made full use of the excellent set in front of a capacity audience.

One got the feeling that some of the more 'racy' scenes had been toned down, which lost some of the meaning of the songs.

This aspect of a show should be carefully considered when making choices.

Creditable

Musical director Gladstone Wilson was always in control of the 14-strong orchestra and achieved some fine four-part harmony singing from the full company.

All of the principals gave creditable performances with Caroline Evans', Emma and Kayleigh Turu's, Lucy deserving special mention for their duet, In His Eyes.

Comparative newcomer, 20year-old Adam Robinson, played the demanding dual role of Jekyll and Hyde with a confidence that belies his age and experience.

Gabourey Sidibe

Precious
BBC2, 11.10pm
Don't expect a bundle of laughs from this Oscar-winning film. Instead, have hankies at the ready, because it's incredibly upsetting in places. It's also a fascinating tale about 16-year-old Claireece Jones. She's illiterate, overweight and pregnant with her second child – whose father is Claireece's own biological dad. He's been abusing his daughter for years. Eventually, Claireece is moved to a new school where a kindly teacher attempts to take her under her wing, and give her the care and attention that could turn her life around.

Pick of the Week

Paying a fitting tribute to the nation's heroes

If you're at that sort of age where you get teary-eyed watching Roy and Hayley on Coronation Street, or even big screen blockbusters like White House Down, then we'll warn you now: get a big box of handkerchiefs as Daily Mirror's Pride of Britain Awards 2013 will leave you roaring.

There are many uplifting stories of courage and of going the extra mile here, which, in a world where everyone seems to be looking out for themselves, restores your faith in humanity. Grosvenor House in London's Park Lane will be the setting for this star-studded event, with the likes of Prince William, Prince Charles and Prime Minister David Cameron joining more than 100 celebrities in honouring Britain's unsung heroes. Hosted by Carol Vorderman, the 15th annual do is packed with stories of selfless courage and achievement against the odds.

Winners include a 10 year-old boy who saved his dad's life when he collapsed with a heart attack. If that's not enough to make you fill up you undoubtedly will when you hear the story of the eight year-old meningitis victim who, had his four limbs amputated.

What's remarkable is that he then went on an unbelievable fund-raising mission for the hospital that treated him. By this point in the proceedings, we fully expect a river of mascara to be running down your cheeks, but there are even more stories like that to come.

Such as the one of the lollipop lady who almost died when she jumped in front of an out-of-control car to save a group of schoolchildren. Naturally, thoughts also turn to Britain's armed forces in Afghanistan, and, in particular, to a brave rifleman who ran across open ground under sniper fire to rescue an injured comrade – despite having been shot himself.

Marking the 150th anniversary of The FA, Prince William will meet an extraordinary woman who turned around her community through the power of the beautiful game.

Those who lost relatives in the Hillsborough tragedy, and fought for almost a quarter of a century to uncover the truth about what happened on that fateful day, will also be honoured. Carol Vorderman says: "It's always such a great pleasure hosting Pride of Britain. For me, it is the only awards show on TV that really matters because the winners are real people who could not be more deserving."

The judging committee selecting this year's winners are ITN news anchorman Mark Austin, Campaigner and Pride of Britain winner 2012 Katie Piper, Olympic heptathlon gold medallist Denise Lewis OBE, former England footballer Michael Owen, President of the Royal College of Nursing Andrea Spyropoulos, Chief Constable of West Midlands Police Chris Sims, Daybreak presenter Aled Jones MBE and Paralympic hero David Weir CBE.

Carol adds: "Over the past 14 years, there have been so many heart-warming, inspiring stories of people who have contributed so much to this country. "It's a chance for us to celebrate Britain at its best and I'm not surprised it has become the biggest national event of its kind."

Carol Vorderman hosts The Pride of Britain Awards 2013, Tuesday, ITV, 8pm

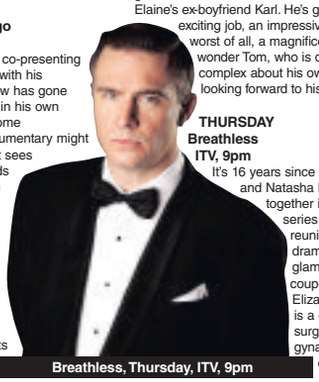
Best of the Rest

MONDAY
EastEnders
BBC1, 8pm
Look up 'cheeky chappy' in the dictionary, and chances are you'll see Alfie Moon's face gurning back at you. But even the life and soul of every Vic theme night has his limits, and discovering that Roxy has been seeing her sister behind his back has just about pushed him over it. To make matters worse, Michael is winding him up about his fiancée's betrayal, and when Alfie confronts Ronnie, she says that while she is sorry about snatching his son and everything, she is Roxy's family and he'll just have to get used to it.

Tom Kerridge's Proper Pub Food
BBC2, 8.30pm
There was once a time when the sole purpose of a pub was to serve its customers the beverage of their choice. But now a hostelry that doesn't serve meals is very unusual. When it comes to pub food, few know more than Tom Kerridge. Last year, his gastropub, The Hand & Flowers in Buckinghamshire, became the first pub to be awarded two Michelin stars. Now he's passing on his expertise to viewers via this series. This week he's demonstrating meals that can be served to groups of friends.

TUESDAY
The Dog Rescuers
Channel 5, 7.30pm
Dogs are supposedly man's best friend – so why do so many of them end up abused and badly treated? That may for ever remain a mystery, but programmes such as Animal Hospital, Paul O'Grady's For the Love of Dogs and now Dog Rescuers have highlighted the terrible conditions some canines have been forced to endure. Thankfully, as we're about to see in this new, ten-part series, some tales do have a happy ending. The programme begins in Manchester, where the RSPCA is carrying out a joint operation with the police and trading standards officers at a puppy farm where they suspect dogs are being bred illegally.

WEDNESDAY
Dan Snow's History of Congo
BBC2, 9pm
Although he made his TV debut co-presenting a programme about El Alamein with his newsreader dad Peter, Dan Snow has gone on to be a successful presenter in his own right – and his shows have become increasingly ambitious. This documentary might be his most challenging yet as it sees Dan behind the British battlefields and trains he has reported on in the past and heading to the Democratic Republic of Congo, which is one of the wildest, most colourful and anarchic places on the planet. In theory, it should also have been one of the richest due to its natural resources, yet instead the country has been blighted by poverty – and the historian wants to find out why.



Breathless, Thursday, ITV, 9pm

Father Figure
BBC1, 10.35pm
With its cosy family set-up and liberal amounts of slapstick, Father Figure seems to have been tailor-made for prime-time Friday viewing – so it's strange to find it tucked away on a late-night Wednesday. However, Miranda and this sitcom's most obvious recent antecedent Mrs Brown's Boys also overcame odd scheduling and mixed early reviews to become big hits, so there's hope for Jason Byrne's show yet. This fourth episode also has the added benefit of a guest role for Peter Serafinowicz, who stars as Elaine's ex-boyfriend Karl. He's got charm, an exciting job, an impressive physique and worst of all, a magnificent chin – no wonder Tom, who is developing a complex about his own 'turkey neck' isn't looking forward to his visit.

THURSDAY
Breathless
ITV, 9pm
It's 16 years since Jack Davenport and Natasha Little appeared together in the second series of This Life. They reunite for this new drama set in 1961 as glamorous married couple Otto and Elizabeth Powell. Otto is a charismatic surgeon working in a gynaecology unit. He's convinced he can make positive changes to women's lives, even if it means breaking the abortion laws. But despite appearing to be perfect, Otto and Elizabeth are hiding a dark secret that could wreck their lives.

Truckers
BBC1, 9pm
Channel 5 has spent years trying to convince us that the lives of lorry drivers are inherently dramatic – just look at all those series of Eddie Stobart: Trucks and Trailers. But now the BBC is getting in on the act too, with an actual drama series centring on a haulage firm in Nottinghamshire. Stephen Tompkinson heads the impressive cast as Malachi, who got divorced 18 months ago, but is still living in the family home with his ex-wife. He's not moved on emotionally either, and is still hopeful his relationship can be fixed – until he discovers his wife is engaged to another man. Malachi is also facing upheaval at work as the new boss Martin (John Dagliesh) unveils a revised roster.

FRIDAY
World Cup Qualifying Live
ITV, 7.30pm
The quest to reach next year's World Cup finals in Brazil moves a step closer to concluding this evening, as England welcome Montenegro to Wembley Stadium in their penultimate Group H encounter. With the visit of Poland to come on Tuesday night, Roy Hodgson can at least draw comfort from the knowledge that two wins would guarantee qualification no matter how their rivals perform, however they have so far failed to defeat any of their direct rivals in the group.

WHY USE C RESIDENTIAL TO SELL YOUR HOME ?

We understand you may be thinking that all Estate Agents are the same and you will more than likely have invited a few agents out to see what fees they charge and what they can offer.
Below are just 3 reasons why we think you should speak with us but please feel free to contact any of our sales team to discuss what we can do for you

We maintain a strict NO SALE, NO CHARGE policy and even if you change your mind about selling we WILL NEVER try and charge our fee (even if we have agreed a sale and you have to pull out for personal reasons). People move house for many different reasons and sometimes their personal circumstances change and alter. With this in mind it is very important for us as a company that we should have NO HIDDEN FEES.

WE SELL MORE HOUSES THAN ANYONE ELSE IN THE AREA

We know that because an independent company assesses the market every quarter. In August 2013 C residential were found to have sold more houses than anyone else for the seventh time in a row and had 39.6%

If you are still not convinced that you should try us then give us only 4 weeks to show you what we can do. We will not try and tie you into a long contract and if we don't impress you then you are free to walk away. All we ask is for a 4 week sole agency contract.

One last thing ..... Helping the people of Rugeley and surrounding areas find their dream home, the team at C Residential are committed to delivering the best in estate and letting agency services. We're dedicated in supporting our community, and are involved in various local projects including sponsorship of football teams and the Rugeley Town Traders Association. By buying, renting or selling your property through C residential & C lettings, you'll be helping us to support local businesses and keep our vibrant community alive - which, in the long run, benefits all of us.

Motoring

Compiled by Motoring Editor Sharon Walters

Mirage turns out to be a delightful reality

IMAGINE you are trekking across a desert and you've drunk the last of your water. Desperate to slake your thirst there in the distance is a shimmering lifesaver – an oasis.

Freshwater surrounded by palm tress. But get closer and it turns out to be yet another pile of sand, a mirage.

Imagine your car has finally given up the ghost and you need to replace those wheels very quickly. You spot a car on a forecourt called a Mirage and from a distance it looks delightful, tempting you to go closer. As you approach it gets better and better and it doesn't melt away into nothingness.

When you open the door and climb inside the Mirage is exactly the opposite to the meaning of the word, an optical illusion which is unobtainable. For this car from Mitsubishi is certainly no illusion and is certainly attainable with a price tag starting at £8,999.

Well enough of all that flowery talk and let's get down to the meat of this small car, a return to Mitsubishi's roots of producing quality cars in this sector. It's the car that replaced the Colt and is stylish and well equipped. On top of that it produces less than 100 grams of CO2 which means it's zero-rated for Vehicle Excise Duty and if you take it to London there's no congestion charge.

And you won't be taking a bank loan to pay for fuel as you get between 65.7 and 68.9mpg across the range, as I discovered. Too often those fuel claims are optimistic for normal use in day-to-day driving but not so here. The Mirage is powered by a new generation of lightweight small petrol engines with two choices. A very low and frugal 1-litre on the Mirage 1, and the 1.2-litre, 3-cylinder engine that has a stop and go feature as standard, which I tested and thoroughly enjoyed.

Compact with a well laid out control panel – the Mirage 3 automatic model

This new good-looker from Mitsubishi takes over from the ever popular Colt

The 1-litre will give you 71ps and the 1.2-litre 80ps which was ample to get me about. A 5-speed manual transmission is standard and there's a CVT auto on the top specification vehicle. And that CVT is an excellent worker.

The three trim levels of Mirage are designed to appeal to buyers on all manner of budgets and with all kinds of requirements.

The entry-level 1.0-litre version of the car may be the base model but it's still packed with a host of equipment. Included are front electric windows; side air dams; a tyre repair kit; AM/FM radio/CD with two speakers; a glovebox USB terminal and stability and traction control. Next in the range is Mirage 2 which comes with the 1.2 manual engine. This adds a host of extras, the main one of which is arguably Mitsubishi's clever Auto Stop & Go system.

There's a seat height adjuster for the driver; rain-sensing wipers; privacy glass, autolights and bright interior door handles. Other features that are sure to appeal include air conditioning, a pollen filter, electricdoor mirrors and an outside temperature gauge.

Mirage 3, available with either automatic or manual transmission, includes everything Mirage 2 has to offer plus front fog lamps, a leather steering wheel and gear knob and a keyless entry system with push-button start. Automatic air-conditioning with a pollen filter enhances the package still further, as do the front fog lamps.

Mitsubishi took note of buyers' needs on safety and that worked with it gaining good marks with Euro NCAP giving Mirage a very high 4-star rating.

Tough guy gets huge makeover by Toyota

Land Cruiser gains a 4.2-inch TFT colour screen, and new look speedometer

The reworked design preserves the model's distinctive rugged identity

Toyota has introduced a series of improvements that give its Land Cruiser new styling, an improved interior and revised handling for the 2014 model year.

The reworked design preserves the model's identity, while the interior changes raise quality, convenience and ease of use.

Detailed adjustments to the suspensions systems – both the standard set-up and the Kinetic Dynamic Suspension System (KDSS) featured on higher grade models – deliver even better stability and ride comfort.

by David Banner

The new front-end treatment is the stand-out feature of the 2014 Land Cruiser's refreshed design. Toyota has introduced a more prominent grille, giving them a stronger appearance. According to model grade, the bars have a metallic or silver finish.

The new headlamp clusters and running lights now form a single unit with the grille and the entire structure is set higher, making it less vulnerable to damage when driving off-road.

The lamp units incorporate the high and low beam lights, turn indicators and DRLs; halogen or LED headlights and DRLs will be offered, according to grade.

The over-size bumper has a two-step design that further protects the headlights above.

Unchanged

In spite of adding 20mm to the front overhang, its sharply cut-away bottom edge means there is no change to the vehicle's turning circle or its approach angle when driving off-road. The wheelbase and rear overhang are unchanged.

At the rear the lamp clusters have been redesigned with clear lens blocks and red accents and the licence plate surround has been rendered more prominent. New 17 and 18-inch wheel designs have been introduced and the range of exterior colours will include a number of new mica finishes.

The new Land Cruiser's cabin gains new trims and detailing that raise the overall tactile and perceived quality. The dashboard has been redesigned with a focus on making the vehicle's drive systems easier to access and monitor. The centre console gains a new switch panel that brings together the controls for the on and off-road driving technologies.

The new 2014 Land Cruiser also gains a 4.2-inch TFT colour screen, set between the main meters in the driver's instrument binnacle. The choice of function has been extended to include an angle gauge, traction control operation on each wheel and the status of the differential locks.

Drivers can select the screen functions using a control on the steering wheel, with additional new options including tyre pressure warning, headlamp levelling, traction control "off" confirmation and Blind Spot Monitor alerts. The Optitron speedometer and tachometer have a new look.

In the five-door Land Cruiser, access to the third row seats has made been made easier by increasing the folding angle of the second row seats.

Seat upholstery has also been upgraded while the comprehensive safety provisions will be extended.

In the UK Land Cruiser will continue to use its proven 188bhp 3.0-litre turbodiesel engine, matched to a five-speed automatic transmission.

The four-cylinder, 16-valve unit has been revised to meet Euro 5+ emissions standards, but with no decrease in performance.

Figures show that the '13' plate has been the best selling six-month period for new car sales in five years

Bumper sales are sending out an upbeat message

THE '13' registration number has proved lucky for new car sales in the UK as it has been the best selling six-month period in nine registration plate changes.

From March 1 to the end of August, the number of 13-plate cars sold totalled 1,115,459 in the UK to make this the most successful new car sales period in five years.

The Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders, which compiles new car sales information, says this bodes well for the 63-reg that began on September 1. It reckons more the £6 billion will be spent on new cars in the six months from September 1 to the end of February 2014.

Interim

"We have seen a strong performance from the new car market throughout 2013, with the number of cars registered increasing in July for the 17th successive month," said Mike Baunton, SMMT interim chief executive.

"Now we have evidence of consistent growth, we have raised our forecast for 2013 new car registrations to 2.216 million units, an increase of over eight per cent on last year," he added.

"In line with this positive trend, we expect the new 63 plate to be very successful and for September registrations to provide a similar peak to that seen in March."

March is typically the month for the highest number of registrations, with September coming a close second. More than a third of annual registrations occur in March and September combined, with the other months typically accounting for 6.5 per cent of the annual total.

Debut Dan's the man with instant goal

Lincoln United1 Chasetown 2

SCHOLARS boss Craig Harris had to shuffle his squad with four of the side who played in midweek unavailable through injury, family weddings and work commitments.

Lincoln were themselves struggling in the lower reaches of the league table but it was they that drew first blood in this encounter.

Slick passing between Nathan Modest and Sam Wilkinson opened up the Scholars' defence and United skipper Andy Toyne hit a thunderbolt of a shot beyond Ryan Price to give the hosts the lead.

It was short-lived, though. The Lincoln defence was at sixes and sevens trying to clear the danger and goalkeeper Nathan Burrows found himself in no man's land.

A chance fell to Andy Westwood to fire beyond the retreating defenders but the ball was cleared but only as far as Tesfa Robinson who calmly made no mistake past the covering defenders.

A stop-start first half, littered with free kicks, remarkably stayed 1-1 at the break. Lincoln looked a threat with their aerial presence every time they went forward while Chasetown were exploiting noticeable weaknesses in the Lincoln back four. Paul Sullivan, in his first start since returning from injury, tricked his way past Burrows on the half hour, only to be tripped outside the penalty area. Luckily for Burrows there was no card but Lee Butler's free kick was over-hit.

Sullivan came closest to giving the Scholars the lead, battling his way past defenders on the edge of the box, only to see his shot come back off the post in the dying seconds of the half. The Scholars had came out for the second half showing intent to capitalise on the opportunity to get their first away victory of the season and after early dominance of possession, Craig Harris introduced Simon Brown for the last half hour to try to kill the game off.

His impact was instant A right foot shot was inches wide and it was followed by a through ball to Butler, who side footed just wide.

It seemed like there could only be one winner and when Walsall loanee forward Danny Griffiths came on for his debut in the 74th minute and he could not have wished for a greater introduction.

Brown's cross into the box fell to the feet of Sullivan, who was crowded out. He took a touch to get down to the bye-line and chipped up an inch-perfect cross that left Burrows stranded at his near post and Griffiths put his head in where he could've got hurt to head Chasetown into the lead, not much than 30 seconds after coming on.

Sullivan went close to adding a third before Lincoln lost their self-discipline and were reduced to nine men.

Firstly, Danny Brooks picked up a second yellow card for a foul in midfield and in the last minutes of the game, Sean Wright conceded a free kick on the edge of the box and received a straight red card for something he said to the referee.

Old boy's unwelcome return denies top-shot

Chasetown1 Sutton Coldfield Town1

FORMER Scholars No.1 Lee Evans came back to haunt his former club with a first class penalty save to deny Chasetown's joint leading scorer Nick Wellecomme.

After Ramone Stephens was bundled to the ground by Matt Jackson (one of six former Chasetown players on show for the Royals), Wellecomme's right foot kick was well struck but Evans flung himself to his right to not only keep out the shot but also ensuring no follow-up from another Scholar.

After the break, an unchanged Chasetown side had more impetus and strong defending from Joel Kettle blocked Paul Sullivan after a neat one-two with Andy Westwood.

After some sloppy possession in the first half, Chasetown were more assertive after the interval and it was Stephens who took the game to the Royals with a sprint into the penalty area that left Jackson little option but to up-end the winger.

Following Evans' penalty, Sutton went straight up the other end and struck the crossbar before taking the lead in the 64th minute when Danks, who had gone close in the first half, fired home.

Walsall boss Dean Smith was among the 161 crowd to see his striker Danny Griffiths' second game of his loan period with Chasetown.

Griffiths, who had netted within a minute of coming on as sub at the weekend was soon in the thick of the goalscoring action again.

Just five minutes after

Scholars

coming on, Stephens pulled the trigger from long range and Evans could only palm out his fierce effort and Griffiths reacted quicker than anyone to slide home the equaliser.

If Griffiths does nothing else in his Chasetown caree,r he'll be remembered for two goals as substitute within less than six minutes of entering the action.

Neither side looked likely to edge the winner.

Simon Brown glanced a header wide of the upright while Sutton gave Chasetown a scare when a short free kick from Price went straight to a Sutton forward, before Chasetown recovered to clear the danger.

Chasetown: Price, Farmer, Beckett, Slater, Tesfa Robinson, Westwood, Butler (Brown, 61 mins), Bragoli, Wellecomme (Theo Robinson, 83 mins), Sullivan (Griffiths, 63 mins), Stephens. Subs: Forde, Watson (not used)

Sutton Coldfield Town: Evans, Lycett, Jackson, Parsons, Kettle, Maze, Taylor (Leek, 74 mins), Milligan, Thompson (Hay, 62 mins), Danks, Chapman. Subs: Williams, McNaught, Gwilliams (not used)

O'Hara is not part of my plans says boss

WOLVES boss Kenny Jackett has delivered another crushing snub to Jamie O'Hara.

The £5m midfielder joined a mixed squad for one training session to make up the numbers while a behind-closed-doors friendly against Sheffield United was played, sparking speculation he was back in the fray.

The stuttering Wolves midfield has come under fire at a time when David Davis is suspended for tomorrow's visit of the Blades. Some fans have called for exiled O'Hara, who earns an estimated £20,000-a-week, to be recalled, while others insist his time is up after falling out with supporters at the end of last season.

Jackett suggested he hasn't considered a U-turn on the 26-year-old, who is the only one of the four transfer-listed players still at Molineux.

"It's not something I've thought about too much," said Jackett. "He's not in my plans up to now.

"If the midfield needs a better balance, I'll try to address it and use every option I have. But my position hasn't changed – my thinking at present isn't to use Jamie."

Bust up is a boost for player Reid

ALBION veteran Steven Reid has lifted the lid on how Saido Berahino's Brentford bust-up helped him kick-start his Baggies career.

Reid reckons Berahino's fall-out with Bees boss Uwe Rosler and the knee injury he suffered at the end of last season were 'turning points' in the 20-year-old's life.

The England Under-21 international netted the fairytale winner in Albion's 2-1 victory at Old Trafford on Saturday after marking his full debut with a hat-trick in the Capital One Cup.

"He has been superb this season," said Reid. "I can't credit him enough. Maybe a year and a half ago, when he went to Brentford on loan, it was a turning point for him.

"It was a point when he realised he needed to knuckle down and focus on football.

"He worked his socks off this summer and I can't give him enough credit."

Berahino angered Rosler and had his loan cut short.

Cannock have sixty-six appeal in victory

Midlands Junior Vase Round 1
Trinity Guild 13 Cannock 66

EARLY pressure from the home team suggested it could be a long day for Cannock as they converted a simple penalty kick to open the scoring.

Cannock however, were determined not to be messed about. Their front row destroyed scrums all afternoon.

Phil Painting put in Cannock's first try of the day, carrying strongly through several tacklers to crash over the line.

The second score came from quick line-out play, Brad Stanaway leaping well to win the balls. This time Painting was used as a decoy and Josh Humphries received the ball in the middle of the field.

A sharp sidestep and hand-off saw him run in his first of the day, to make it 3-10.

Humphries provided the pass for the third try with Steve Murrell showing his pace to run in a try from the half way line.

Again it was Humphries who seemed to pass like a ghost through the home team defence to secure his second try of the day to leave the half time score at 3-24.

Cannock started the second half strongly and a defensive scrum on the opposition's five metre line was turned over and Freeman drove the ball over the line.

From the restart a neat offload from Joe Brookes provided Steve Frost with a gap, which proved to be all he needed as he burst through and ran a neat line to put himself running into open space and under the posts for Cannock's sixth.

Here followed two similar tries from the evasive Dan Mayle.

Trinity were not going to take all this lying down and they responded with two tries created from persistent tight running from the forwards, on both occasions Cannock defence held firm but was eventually broken down.

Humphries then got his hat-trick.

The home team struggled to clear their lines thanks to the secure hands and strong running of full back Jordan Pincombe.

Strong tackling from, among others, Darren Baugh provided a turnover. Craig Macdougall with a well-placed clearing kick allowed Pedley to chase and retrieve a deft, and somewhat cheeky, chip over the last lines of defence saw him reclaim the ball and dot down to make the score.

Mentions must go out to Scott Pedley for kicking 8/10 on the day, Humphries for his hat-trick and the eventual man-of-the-match Vigo Madsen for a strong performance in the open and an outstanding debut in the front-row.

Cannock welcome the strong Bishops Castle in the league next week. For further information visit Pitchero or the club's Facebook page – Cannock Rufc.

Lioness pack lose out after good start

THE new Cannock Lionesses hosted the final tournament of the Midlands Women's Touch Rugby League at the Morgan Ground

The Lionesses finished in a credible sixth out of eight teams in the final tournament of the season.

Cannock began the tournament against Camp Hill.

The Lionesses took the lead in the first half and managed to hang on to it until the final whistle.

The second game pitched the Lionesses against Redditch who took the lead. The Lionesses evened the score and that's how it ended.

In to the final group game Pershore awaited the Lioness pack. Pershore took an early lead as Cannock were pinned back in their own half. Quick defence from Pershore scuppered Cannock's advances and they took full advantage scoring again. The Lionesses eventually lost 4-0.

A draw in the final group game between Camp Hill and Redditch would have seen the Lionesses finish second in their group but the result did not go their way and they had to contest the 5th/6th placings.

They lost to Stratford.

Flowers leads plaudits to old pal Broadbent

TRIBUTES have flooded in for Wolves legend Peter Broadbent, who has died at the age of 80.

The inside forward, who made 497 appearances for the club, was one of Wolves' greatest players of all time.

He was recognised as their most skillful player during their glory years of the 1950s.

Former team-mate Ron Flowers revealed the midfielder was the first player he met when he arrived at the club.

Broadbent and Flowers, who went on to win three league titles and the FA Cup, lived together for three years having both arrived at Molineux as teenagers.

Flowers described fellow club legend Broadbent, who died on Tuesday morning, as a "quiet man" who kept himself to himself.

Headlines

He said the midfielder's place in the club's history is assured and added that Broadbent's arrival at Wolves made huge headlines back in February 1951, when he signed from Brentford, aged 17.

Flowers signed just over a year later and the pair lived together during their formative years at the club.

"I remember Peter being a big signing for the club then. He was very much the boy wonder when he arrived. He was a huge signing and a very gifted player," he said.

"Peter was the first person I met when I arrived at the club, we were in digs together as a 17-year-olds," he said.

Wolves

"We were very close. We were both young lads. He was a quiet bloke really. Very much kept himself to himself."

And Peter Knowles, who made 191 appearances and scored 64 goals, believes Broadbent was a true Wolves legend.

"Without a shadow of a doubt – Peter Broadbent and Bert Williams these are what you call legends," said Knowles who played for Wolves between 1963 and 1969.

"He was such a nice fellow, he was always laughing, he never stopped. He was my role model.

"Our temperaments were different – I could be a nasty piece of work – but Peter was such a lovely man.

"I was cleaning the stadium out, the South Bank, and the first team was on the pitch training.

"That's when I first saw him. It was like watching a skater on ice.

"He must have flowed over the pitch," added Knowles.

Oliver proves more than up to the challenge

GREAT Wyrley Amateur Boxing Club's good start to the season continued when 13-year-old Oliver Cooper scored a unanimous points decision against Reece Salvo of Wolverhampton.

Cooper dominated from the start, shooting out the jab and constantly making his opponent miss time and time again.

Salvo, game to the last, spent the fight punching thin air as Cooper displayed his superb fitness to force his opponent into mistakes and then punished him with quick combinations.

Cooper's fight was the perfect warm-up for tomorrow's bout in Ludlow when he takes on Ashley Moule in a three rounder at Ludlow Racecourse.

Next Saturday night Reece Roberts is boxing at Darlaston Town Hall.

It's Roberts last bout before the CYP Championships on October 13.

GWABC's first show in five years, which is sponsored by James Evans Financial Services, takes place at Great Wyrley Sports and Social club on October 10 and hopefully all the squad will be in action. Tickets are £10 and will be on sale from Monday.

Saddlers to appeal on sending off

WALSALL are set to launch an appeal against Andy Butler's sending-off at Leyton Orient on Saturday.

The Saddlers skipper is facing an immediate three-game ban after being shown a straight red card by referee Graham Scott after just 17 minutes following a challenge on Romain Vincelot.

But after watching the video of the incident, manager Dean Smith believes the decision was wrong and has vowed to appeal, revealing Butler was "bemused" at why he was sent-off.

"I don't even think it was a free-kick. I think it was a great tackle and we will be appealing it," said Smith.

"Andy was bemused. He said he just went and won the tackle.

"The referee said he was out of control but I don't know how he can be when he won the ball with his feet on the ground."

Two late goals and Hayes net the points

Heath Hayes 3
AFC Wulfrunians 2

HAYES came back from the brink with two injury time goals to clinch this Midland Alliance fixture.

Hayes went ahead after eight minutes. Dennis Pickets' fierce shot was blocked and the alert Dave Waple swept the ball home.

Wulfs then got on top with some delightful interplay. It was no surprise when Wulfs equalised. Jake Webb, not for the first time, made a fine run down the right and his cross was turned home by Andy Thompson.

Wulfs were the better side in the second half and Craig Gregg missed a good chance. Moments later he atoned by firing home following a quick free kick from Richard Palmer.

Hayes kept plugging away and their efforts were rewarded when Tom Baggott got his head to a corner which Tipton couldnt hold and Waple forced the ball home.

In the fifth minute of injury time Ben Maddox, playing his first game of the season, headed home Adam Robinson's well flighted free kick to win the game.

● Heath Hayes' Midland Alliance fixture on Saturday was postponed as their scheduled opponents Tipton Town played an FA Cup tie at Halesowen where the home side recorded a win.

Quality and spirit – boss

DEAN SMITH marked his nomination for League One Manager of the Month by insisting Walsall have the quality to match their team spirit.

The Saddlers boss was one of four shortlisted for the monthly award following an excellent September in which his side claimed eight points from four games, beat Wolves and became the first team to take points off league leaders Leyton Orient.

Smith's nomination is the second piece of good news, after the club's successful appeal of Andy Butler's red card at Orient on Saturday.

The Saddlers' performance – claiming a point despite playing for more than 70 minutes a man down – rightfully drew plenty of plaudits.

"For me it's not only team spirit but the quality we have," said Smith.

Club great Broadbent dies at the age of 80

Peter Broadbent

ONE of Wolves' greatest-ever players, Peter Broadbent, has died aged 80.

The former inside forward, recognised as the most skilful player in the club's greatest team, died peacefully at 2am on Tuesday at Beech House nursing home, Himley. Mr Broadbent had been suffering from Alzheimer's Disease for many years but had been cared for by staff at the home.

His devoted wife Shirley had visited him at the home every day, despite his deteriorating condition.

Wolves

A club statement read: "Peter Broadbent was regarded as one of the finest ever players to grace a Wolves shirt.

"Sincere condolences from everyone at Wolves to Peter's wife Shirley and all of his family and friends."

Mr Broadbent, one of the first inductees into the Wolves Hall of Fame, is ranked alongside Bert Williams, Billy Wright, Ron Flowers and Bill Slater as one of the club's greatest players of all time. He was part of Stan Cullis's all-conquering team that won the Football League title three times and the FA Cup in 1960 before embarking on a series of trailblazing European floodlit friendlies which proved a forerunner to what is now the Champion's League.

Part of England's 1958 World Cup squad, Dover-born Mr Broadbent, who also scored Wolves' first goal in Europe, netted 145 times in 497 games after arriving as a club-record signing from Brentford for £10,000 in 1951. Mr Broadbent was known for his legendary body swerve which entranced fans at a time when Wolves were recognised as the greatest team in the country.

Leaving Wolves in 1965, he joined Shrewsbury Town and also played for Aston Villa, Stockport County and Bromsgrove Rovers.

After his football career, the Broadbents ran a greengrocers in Halesowen and settled in Codsall, where they lived for many years. Son Gary is a professional golfer.

DOUBLE DURRELL IS BACK WITH A BANG

AFC Telford United 1 Hednesford Town 3

ONE of the finest home-grown products of recent years excelled on the New Bucks Head turf on Saturday.

Unfortunately, for AFC Telford he was wearing a Hednesford shirt. Shrewsbury-born striker Elliott Durrell did start out at Hednesford, but switched to the youth ranks of the Bucks before progressing to make four first-team appearances for the club.

Pitmen

But it never quite worked out for him at Telford and he rejoined the Pitmen in 2008.

Now the 24-year-old is one of the most feared strikers in the Skrill Conference North and the league's top scorer adding another two cup goals to his tally.

Robbie Booth had to dig out a beauty to get them going on Saturday but Durrell scored two free-kicks in response, also setting up Aaron Rey for their second goal.

Parrying

It was action straight from the off as Ryan Young was called into play in the home goal with less than a minute on the clock, parrying away Jamey Osborne's shot from outside the area.

Hednesford rattled the woodwork three minutes before half-time with a free kick from former Telford winger Kris Taylor, which came over and clanged off Young's left hand post.

The tie suddenly sprung into life after the break with a super strike from each side, Booth first doing the honours to break the deadlock for Telford in the 51st minute.

Picking up the ball outside of the area, he drew the challenge of Hednesford defender Ben Bailey before curling a beauty over Crane and into the far corner.

But whatever Booth could do, Durrell with the bit between his teeth could do better and just three minutes later with a sweetly struck free kick from just outside the box.

The Pitmen hitman hammered a low drive round the wall and into Young's far corner for the equaliser.

Hednesford grabbed the winner with 10 minutes to go, as Durrell turned provider by whacking a long ball into the box that a backtracking Byrne should have got his head to.

He mistimed his jump and ended up missing it, not realising an onside Rey was behind him who got his head to it and nodded it over Young and into the net.

But Byrne can consider himself hard done to when his shirt was tugged on 87 minutes by Campion, hauling him to the ground, with referee Hunt waving away penalty appeals.

Durrell was shining for Hednesford and Telford were undone by almost a carbon copy of this first goal with two minutes to go, from another free-kick just outside the box.

Elliott Durrell is congratulated by his Hednesford team mates after scoring one of his two goals against Telford

Winger moves to Molineux

JAMES HENRY has sealed his move to Molineux.

The 24-year-old right winger has joined Wolves on loan from Millwall until January 1 with a view to a £250,000 permanent move.

After three seasons in the Championship before dropping a division to rejoin his old Millwall boss Kenny Jackett, Henry is already looking beyond promotion from League One.

"I'm looking forward to trying to play a part in keeping Wolves up there and with a chance to get back into the Championship," said Reading-born Henry.

"Everyone is looking upwards and looking to get back up and then being a top-six team in that division.

"It will be good to play a part in that and being involved with a great young squad full of hungry players."

Henry, who is just three games short of 200 senior appearances – 164 have been for Millwall – is targeting a regular spot after losing his place in the last month.

He admitted it was a big decision to drop a division but said the size of Wolves and the chance to prosper under Jackett and assistant head coach Joe Gallen again swung it.
